half-time swung sixteenths feel

Jonathon D. Wilson

Piano $\text{♩} = 104$

The piano score is written for a grand piano in D minor, 4/4 time, with a tempo of 104 beats per minute. The key signature has two flats (Bb and Eb). The score consists of 16 measures, organized into four systems of two staves each. Measure numbers 1, 4, 7, 10, 13, and 16 are indicated at the start of their respective systems. The music features a mix of chords and single-note lines in both hands. Dynamics include ff (fortissimo) at measure 1, mp (mezzo-piano) at measures 11 and 15, and f (forte) at measure 16. There are first and second endings marked with '1' and '2' above the staff. Rehearsal marks 'A' and 'B' are placed above measures 7 and 15 respectively. The notation includes various note values, rests, and articulation marks.

Embodied Expression in Popular Music Timothy Koozin, 2024-03-18 Theory in popular music has historically tended to approach musical processes of rhythm harmony counterpoint and form as abstractions without very directly engaging the intimate connection between the performer and instrument in popular music performance Embodied Expression in Popular Music illuminates under researched aspects of music theory in popular music studies by situating musical analysis in a context of embodied movement in vocal and instrumental performance Author Timothy Koozin offers a performance based analytical methodology that progresses from basic idiomatic gestures to gestural combinations and interactions with large scale design to broader interpretive strategies that engage with theories of embodiment the musical topic and narrative The book examines artistic practices in popular song that draw from a vast range of stylistic sources including rock blues folk soul funk fusion and hip hop as well as European classical and African American gospel musical traditions Exploring the interrelationships in how we create hear and understand music through the body Koozin demonstrates how a focus on body instrument interaction can illuminate musical structures while leveling implied hierarchies of cultural value He provides detailed analysis of artists creative strategies in singing and playing their instruments probing how musicians represent subjectivities of gender race and social class in shaping songs and whole albums Tracing connections from foundational blues gospel and rock musicians to current rap artists he clarifies how inferences of musical topic and narrative are part of a larger creative process in strategically positioning musical gestures By engaging with songs by female artists and artists of color Koozin also challenges the methodological framing of traditional theory scholarship As a contribution to work on embodiment and meaning in music this study of popular song explores how the situated and engaged body is active in listening performing and the formation of musical cultures as it provides a means by which we understand our own bodies in relation to the world
