Igniting the Power of Community Paul A. Gaist, 2009-12-04 Igniting the Power of Community The Role of CBOs and NGOs in Global Public Health introduces readers to the pursuit and potential of community based organizations and nongovernmental organizations to transform global public health At a time of unprecedented challenges economic crises social inequalities environmental stressors emerging health threats these organizations are initiating and driving change often being the first to call attention to the issues and increasingly forging significant and sustainable solutions Through concrete examples success stories and cautionary tales from experienced practitioners Igniting the Power of Community demonstrates why understanding the roles of the diverse organizations of this sector is vital to anyone concerned with improving health and public health today This forward thinking book explains how citizen sector organizations work their immediate and long term impact on public health and the key players and business dynamics involved With an emphasis on innovative approaches it provides an insiders view into practical considerations regarding organizational structure financing and operations A sampling of the coverage The new era of social entrepreneurship and philanthropy Sustainability in international public health NGOs Front line perspectives from both well established and grassroots CBOs Faith based organizations and public health NGOs and the military evolving relationships in conflict and disaster zones Understanding the environmental health movement and its impact Project YEAH a youth AIDS organizations story Whether you are involved in clinical care health research public health programs or policy development and implementation this book provides key insights and skills and will serve as an invaluable resource in working most effectively with and within these dynamic organizations body The Tax Treatment of NGO's Paul Bator, Frits Willem Hondius, Penina Kessler Lieber, 2004-01-01 Most national taxation regimes afford certain privileges to non governmental non profit organisations of public benefit However cross border extension of such privileges has failed to materialise in any significant way despite various efforts and the existence of model treaty provisions and even draft NGO multilateral tax treaties Although experts tend to oppose harmonisation on the grounds that international privilege would sink to the lowest national level there does seem to be general agreement that tax incentives to encourage the cross border activity of public benefit organisations should be clarified and augmented The expert authors whose work is assembled in this book offer rich perspectives on this issue Their various analyses include the following detailed discussion of the objections of principle commonly advanced by states the role of discrimination legislation in strategies to advance cross border privilege the continuing failure of political will to achieve changes in this area of taxation the potential of reciprocal unilateral action tax treaties and non tax treaties with tax related provisions multilateral initiatives OECD UN EU Council of Europe World Bank regional treaties and Documentation International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation Ten of the essays discuss relevant measures in specific countries and regions The volume includes extensive primary source material including selected provisions from bilateral tax treaties national tax arrangements and the Interphil s draft for a European Convention on the Tax Treatment of NGOs as well as full texts of Round Table declarations and the European Convention on the Recognition of Legal Personality of International NGOs Quite apart from its importance as an in depth study of a taxation issue of significant social value The Tax Treatment of NGOs will be of great assistance to NGOs and their supporters and benefactors It opens the way to more vigorous lobbying power for the NGO community to influence changes in taxation law and policy Because this issue promises to soon be one whose time has come taxation officials and policymakers cannot afford to ignore this book Nation-Building in the Baltic States Gundar J. Lokshina, Human Rights Watch (Organization), Alexander Petrov, 2009 In his first year in office President Dmitry Medvedev has done little to reverse the Russian government's deliberate weakening of key institutions of a pluralistic democratic society which marked the presidency of Vladimir Putin One key aspect of this growing authoritarianism has been increasing excessive government scrutiny and control of nongovernmental organizations mainly through the 2006 law regulating NGOs This report describes how the law and current rules allow the state to interfere arbitrarily in NGOs by conducting intrusive audits imposing onerous reporting requirements and impeding NGO registration on non substantive insignificant grounds It documents how the law allows the Ministry of Justice to take disproportionate punitive measures in response to minor administrative violations by NGOs The report also describes how the deeply negative operating climate for NGOs is exacerbated by new restrictions on grants and subsidized office space and a growing number of physical attacks and hostile statements directed at NGOs and activists President Medvedev in April 2009 acknowledged the difficulties faced by NGOs including restrictions without sufficient justification occasioning some optimism that Medvedev will break with restrictive policies instituted under Putin Soon thereafter Medvedev initiated a limited process for reforming the troublesome law initial reforms will affect only a fraction of NGOs and are limited in scope Human Rights Watch calls on the Russian government to expand the reform to all organizations and end and desist from further arbitrary limitations on the work of independent civil society groups P 4 of cover Funding Civil Society Lisa McIntosh Sundstrom, 2006 This book investigates the impact of Western democracy assistance programs on the development of Russian women's and soldiers rights NGOs in Russia It argues that the normative content of assistance programs as well as the character of regional political environments fundamentally shape the influence of such programs Role of nongovernmental organizations in the development of
