Growing Downward Nick Thompson, 2022-05-11 Author Nick Thompson recognizes that pride is our worst enemy. If pride is our chief foe, then humility is our chief friend, even though its company may be painful. But spiritual growth is a descent; we must grow downward. Defining humility as the downward disposition of a Godward self-perception, Thompson walks us through the practical implications of this definition, leading us to embrace a God-centered perspective on the self. With winsome illustration and warm pastoral instruction, Growing Downward shows us that the path of humility, though difficult, is the way to true meaning and fulfillment in Jesus Christ. The basic theology for addictions is that the root problem goes deeper than our genetic makeup. Addictions are ultimately a disorder of worship: Will we worship ourselves and our own desires, or will we worship the true God? Blame It on the Brain Edward T. Welch, 2012-01-30 Have you ever been surprised at how some people have accused their brain, making it responsible for some of their bad behavior? As human problems seem to get both deeper and more widespread, people are desperate for solutions, and the quicker the better. How wonderful it would be, many think, if the right pill or genetic alteration could. Lies Women Believe Nancy Leigh DeMoss, 2007-05-01 Counter the lies that keep you from abundant living. Satan is the master deceiver, and his lies are endless. And the lies Christian women believe are at the root of most of their struggles. Many women live under a cloud of personal guilt and condemnation, says Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth. Many are in bondage to their past. Others are gripped by fear of rejection and a longing for approval. Still others are emotional prisoners. In her best-selling Lies Women Believe, Nancy exposes those areas of deception most commonly believed by Christian women: lies about God, sin, priorities, marriage, and family emotions, and more. She then sheds light on how we can be delivered from bondage and set free to walk in God's grace, forgiveness, and abundant life. Nancy offers the most effective weapon to counter and overcome Satan's deceptions: God's truth. Resisting Gossip Matthew C.
