across genres and to speak and listen with purpose Katie Egan Cunningham reminds us that when we bridge strategy with the power of story we deepen literacy learning and foster authentic engagement Story Still the Heart of Literacy Learning compels us to ask crucial questions Why do stories matter Whose stories count Where do stories live How do stories come alive How do we build stories How do we talk about stories And why does this work take courage Katie shares her story as a classroom teacher literacy specialist staff developer and professor She shows teachers how to create classrooms of caring and inquisitive readers writers and storytellers Katie explains specific ways to build a classroom library that reflects our diverse society through rich purposeful and varied texts She also provides numerous examples of multigenre and multimodal stories from children s and young adult literature poetry songs and multimedia The practical toolkit at the end of each chapter demonstrates how to make stories come alive in any classroom

Hollywood or History? Lisa K. Pennington, Donna Fortune, Mary E. Tackett, Paige Horst, Meghan A. Kessler, 2024-09-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film and television productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century However purposeful and effective instruction through film is not problem free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film we are developing a collection of practical classroom ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and where appropriately utilized foster critical thinking and civic mindedness The NCSS College Career and Civic Life C3 framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking reading and writing We believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute Our hope is that this edited book might play a small role in the larger project of supporting practitioners specifically K 6 teachers of social studies content by offering a collection of classroom ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster inquiry through the careful use of selected motion pictures and television productions

HandiLand Elizabeth A. Wheeler, 2019-08-21 HandiLand looks at young adult novels fantasy series graphic memoirs and picture books of the last 25 years in which characters with disabilities take center stage for the first time These books take what others regard as weaknesses for instance Harry Potter s headaches or Hazel Lancaster s oxygen tank and redefine them as part of the hero s journey HandiLand places this movement from sidekick to hero in the political contexts of disability rights movements in the United States the United Kingdom and Ghana Elizabeth A Wheeler invokes the fantasy of HandiLand an ideal society ready for young people with disabilities before they get there as a yardstick to measure how far we ve come and how far we still need to go toward the goal of total inclusion The book moves through the public spaces young people with disabilities have entered including schools nature and online communities As a disabled person and parent of children with disabilities Wheeler offers an inside look into families who collude with their kids in shaping a better world Moving funny and beautifully written HandiLand The Crippest Place on Earth is the definitive study of disability in contemporary literature for young readers      Auggie & Me: Three Wonder Stories R.
