ritual derives from anthropological and sociological premises which are often foreign to religious studies faculty and are seen by some as theologically problematic This is the first resource to address the issues specific to teaching this subject A stellar cast of contributors who teach ritual in a wide variety of courses and settings explain what has worked for them in the classroom what hasn't and what they've learned from experience Their voices range from personal to formal and their topics from Japanese theatre to using field trips The result is a thoughtful guide for teachers who are new to the subject as well as experienced ones looking for fresh angles and approaches
