'Progress' in Zimbabwe? David Moore, Norma Kriger, Brian Raftopoulos, 2013-09-13 Zimbabwe's severe crisis and a possible way out of it with a transitional government and the new era for which it prepares the ground demands a coherent scholarly response Progress can be employed as an organising theme across many disciplinary approaches to Zimbabwe's societal devastation At wider levels too the concept of progress is fitting It underpins modern liberal and radical perspectives of development pervading the social sciences and humanities Yet perceptions of progress are subject increasingly to intensive critical inquiry Their gruesome end is signified in the political projects of Robert Mugabe and ZANU PF John Gray's Black Mass Apocalyptic Religion and the Death of Utopia indicates this It is expected that participants will engage directly in debates about how the idea of progress has informed their disciplines from political science and history to labour and agrarian studies and then relate these arguments to the Zimbabwean case in general and their research in particular This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies Handbook of Research on Promoting Global Citizenship Education Keengwe, Jared, 2022-02-18 A global citizen is an individual who believes in a public responsibility for their local community to grow and interconnect amongst the world's diverse people and things Global citizenship education is a fast moving process that continues to intertwine communities all over the world As we move toward a more global world the improvement in education health poverty rates and standard of living should come with it This global world must be a place where people are aware of what is going on and can have an impact as well The Handbook of Research on Promoting Global Citizenship Education explores various ways to empower educators to design and implement a curriculum that incorporates global citizen education Covering a range of topics such as global issues and academic migration this major reference work is ideal for academicians industry professionals policymakers researchers scholars instructors and students Integrated Natural Resource Management Bruce Morgan Campbell, Jeffrey Sayer, 2003 This book which contains 15 separately authored chapters discusses both the principles and applications of an integrated approach to natural resource management Such an approach must embrace the complexity of systems and redirect research towards the greater inclusion of issues such as participatory approaches multi scale analysis and an array of tools for system analysis information management and impact assessment Case studies particularly from developing countries in Asia Africa and Latin America are included This book is of interest to a wide range of readers in many disciplines including forestry soil and management sciences agriculture and development studies A.I.D. Research and Development Abstracts, 1982

A.I.D. Research and Development Abstracts United States. Agency for International Development,1976 Adjustment and Social Sector Restructuring Jessica M. Vivian,1995 Social policy in developing countries has been substantially affected in recent years by economic crisis and structural adjustment and perhaps more importantly by the ascendance of neo liberal ideology By the late 1980s the adverse effects of adjustment had become clear and the resulting political opposition led many governments and their external supporters to design programmes meant to mitigate the social costs of adjustment The most visible of these are the social fund or safety net measures intended not only to address the social impacts of adjustment but also to improve their social and political acceptability In addition they are seen by some as providing a model for new more efficient and effective means of providing social service This volume examines the goals assumptions impacts and possible long term outcomes of social policy trends in developing countries The Economics of Tropical Farming Systems Martin Upton,1996-12-12 Clear student text on theory and practice of economic decision making in tropical agriculture Engendering Democracy in Africa Niamh Gaynor,2022-06-01 This book investigates women s political participation in Africa Going beyond the formal institutions of electoral politics it explores a range of spaces where everyday politics take place at national and at local levels In recent years there have been significant improvements in the number of women elected to parliament in Africa However there is little indication that this is translating into better developmental outcomes and indeed there is mounting evidence that it could in fact help to bolster some authoritarian regimes Starting from the premise that politics is a far broader project than securing a seat in national or local legislatures alone this book explores the opportunities for women s political participation across a number of informal spaces where women and men gather organise and interact in a more regular and systematic manner Combining insights from political science sociology and feminist theory and drawing on detailed cases from the Congo Kenya Malawi Nigeria and Rwanda it examines how power in its multiple dimensions circulates across a range of everyday political spaces while drawing attention to the links between domestic gender inequalities and the global political economy Inviting scholars practitioners and activists to broaden their focus beyond formal electoral institutions if they want to support women to become more politically active this book provides fresh insights into major issues at the heart of African studies development studies gender and development democratisation and international relations Twenty Years of Independence in Zimbabwe S. Darnolf,L. Laakso,2016-01-13 This collection offers comprehensive insights into pivotal areas of concern regarding developments in Zimbabwe since its independence By disclosing the intra elite competition assessing the performance of Zimbabwe s economy and explaining how the country s natural resources have been managed we can better understand the ruling ZANU PF s increasing reliance on the so called war veterans and the land reform issue for its political survival Uncovering the Hidden Harvest Bruce M. Campbell,2012-06-25 Forests and woodlands provide an enormous range of goods and services to society from timber and firewood to medicinal plants watershed protection destinations for tourists and sacred sites Only when these are understood and valued can forests and their resources be properly managed and conserved This work shows how the complicated network of benefits can be untangled and sets out the different approaches needed to value them It covers the analysis of plant based markets non market valuation and decision frameworks such as cost benefit analysis Indian Economy and Neoliberal Globalization P L Beena,Murali Kallummal,Santosh Kumar,2022-12-20 This book assesses the effects of globalization and neoliberal economic regimes in low and middle income countries primarily on industries investment and trade finance and credit and employment gender and development The volume written to honour the rich academic work of the eminent economist Professor C P Chandrasekhar addresses issues which are relevant to emerging economies and their concerns around development investment financial planning and adopting new technologies It analyses the new financial systems and institutions and the dominance of global finance in policymaking in these countries and their effects in the postpandemic period It examines the changing contours of finance trade and labour models and laws in developing countries to assess the risks and concerns of economic crises and challenges The volume does justice to an assessment of the macroeconomic and developmental implications of neoliberal policies in India while offering an insightful overview of the new economic practices and policies It also offers suggestions and measures to address concerns regarding banking and global liquidity reinforce robust strategies for growth in both small and large industries and bring in reform This book will be of interest to scholars and students of economics political economy finance and trade development studies and South Asian studies Participatory Valuation of Wild Resources Fiona Hinchcliffe,1998 Economic Management in a Hyperinflationary Environment George Kararach,Raphael O. Otieno,2016-02-11 This volume provides an accessible and up to date account of the difficulties that the Zimbabwean economy and its population experienced during the crisis which peaked in 2008 It details the suffering and chaos that befell the country with dramatic socio economic consequences on growth macroeconomic stability service delivery livelihoods and development The volume seeks to provide a political economy analysis of leadership and economic management in developing economies based on Zimbabwe s experience It examines the triggers of the crisis and the negative impact on productive sectors such as manufacturing and agriculture social sectors such as education and health and on financial services The volume will be of interest to students of policy and economic management as well as to government departments central banks in developing countries development agencies donors and NGOs
