What Is History Edward Hallett Carr:

What is History? E. H. Carr, 2018-06-07 Not only one of our most distinguished historians but also one of the most valuable contributors to historical theory Spectator In formulating an answer to the question of What is History Carr argues that the facts of history are simply those which historians have chosen to focus on All historical facts come to us as a result of interpretive choices by historians influenced by the standards of their age Now for the first time in Penguin Modern Classics with an introduction by Richard J Evans author of the Third Reich trilogy What is History? Edward Hallett Carr, 1986

E.H.Carr: A Critical Appraisal M. Cox, 2016-04-30 E H Carr 1892 1982 was born into security but lived a life of controversy Attacked for appeasing both Hitler and Stalin he was not only one of the most productive writers of the Twentieth century but one of its most provocative as well In this book the first ever to deal critically but fairly with Carr's contribution to international relations Soviet Studies and the study of history sixteen internationally respected authors grapple with his complex intellectual legacy For those seriously interested in understanding the life and times of this most English of establishment radicals this is the place to begin What Is History? Edward Hallet Carr, 1967-10-12 Who is to say how things really were In formulating a modern answer to the question What is History Professor Carr shows that the facts of history are simply those which historians have selected for scrutiny Millions have crossed the Rubicon but the historians tell us that only Caesar's crossing was significant All historical facts come to us as a result of interpretative choices by historians influenced by the standards of their age Yet if absolute objectivity is impossible the role of the historian need in no way suffer nor does history lose its fascination With lucidity Carr casts a light on the proper function of the historian and the vital importance of history in modern society This is an admirably stimulating and intrepid book a bold excursion into a region of central importance where most contemporary philosophers and historians unaccountably either fear or disdain to tread Isaiah Berlin New Statesman Redescribing Christian Origins Ronald Dean Cameron, Merrill P. Miller, 2004 These essays challenge the traditional picture of Christian origins Making use of social anthropology they move away from traditional assumptions about the foundations of Christianity to propose that its historical beginnings are best understood as reflexive social experiments International History and International Relations Andrew J. Williams, Amelia Hadfield, J. Simon Rofe, 2012-08-06 This innovative new textbook seeks to provide undergraduate students of international relations with valuable and relevant historical context bridging the gap and offering a genuinely interdisciplinary approach Each chapter integrates both historical analysis and literature and applies this to an international relations context in an accessible fashion allowing students to understand the historical context in which these core issues have developed The book is organised thematically around the key issues in international relations such as war peace sovereignty identity empire and international organisations Each chapter provides an overview of the main historical context theories and literature in each area and applies this to the study of international relations Providing a fresh approach this work will be essential reading for all students of international relations and international relations theory Scientific Theology: Theory Alister E. Kontrafaktik der Gegenwart Michael Navratil, 2021-12-20 Nicht realistisches Erzählen ist hochpopulär wurde aber häufig des politischen Eskapismus verdächtigt Diese Studie bietet einen fiktionaltheoretischen Zugang zum Erzählverfahren der Kontrafaktik und zeigt dessen Nähe zum politischen Schreiben auf Analysen kontrafaktischer Werke von Christian Kracht Kathrin Röggla Juli Zeh und Leif Randt demonstrieren die Vielfalt und Relevanz politischer Realitätsvariationen in der Gegenwartsliteratur Edinburgh Companion to Political Realism Robert Schuett, 2018-11-14 Political realism is a highly diverse body of international relations theory This substantial reference work examines political realism in terms of its history its scientific methodology and its normative role in international affairs Split into three sections it covers the 2000 year canon of realism the different schools of thought the key thinkers and how it responds to foreign policy challenges faced by individual states and globally It brings political realism up to date by showing where theory has failed to keep up with contemporary problems and suggests how it can be applied and adapted to fit our new globalised world order A Past of Possibilities Quentin Deluermoz, Pierre Singaravélou, 2021-01-01 An exploration of hypothetical turning points in history from Ancient Greece to September 11 What if history as we know it had run another course Touching on alternate histories of the future and the past or uchronias A Past of Possibilities encourages deeper consideration of watershed moments in the course of history Wide ranging in scope it examines the Boxer Rebellion in China the 1848 revolution in France and the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in 1914 and integrates science fiction history historiography sociology anthropology and film In probing the genre of literature and history that is fascinated with hypotheticals surrounding key points in history Quentin Deluermoz and Pierre Singaravélou reach beyond a mere reimagining of history exploring the limits and potentials of the futures past From the most bizarre fiction to serious scientific hypothesis they provide a survey of the uses of counterfactual histories methodological issues on the possible in social sciences and practical proposals for using alternate histories in research and the wider public

The Poetics of International Politics Milan Babík, 2018-10-26 A cutting edge contribution to the aesthetic turn in international relations scholarship this book exposes the role of poetic techniques in constituting the reality of international politics It has two symmetrical goals to illuminate the nonempirical fictions of factual international relations literature and to highlight the real factual inspirations and implications of contemporary international relations fiction Employing narrative theory developed by Hayden White the author examines factual and fictional accounts of world affairs ranging from the anarchy narrative central to mainstream international relations research to novels by Don DeLillo and Milan Kundera Chapters analyzing factual literature flesh out its unacknowledged inventions while those dedicated to fiction explain its political roots and agenda Throughout the distinction between factual and fictional representations of international relations breaks down Social scientific narratives emerge as exercises in rhetoric the art and politics of persuasion through language Artistic narratives surface as real pedagogical lessons and exercises in political activism The volume challenges the autonomy of academic international relations as an exclusive purveyor of serious knowledge about world affairs and calls for active engagement with literary art It will be of interest to scholars of International Relations Political Theory Historiography Cultural Theory and Literary Studies and Criticism

Time and Tide David Pendery, 2024-10-16 The work introduces the topic of historical writing in fictional and non fictional contexts methodologies and approaches The author analyses historiography and historical novels and shows how a confabulation is evident in these works and how these are transacting modes in a single paradigm The book uses the theoretical construct of the Aesthetics Ethic It looks at varied aesthetic contours in lived experience a given social ethic histories of sensibilities and what is termed a narrative ethic and goes on to look at Narrative consciousness and historical experience Living links with analysis comprising narrative consciousness psychological concepts including subjectivity and objectivity and the importance of thought The book also introduces a new theoretical model of historical truth apprehension The examination of fictionalized history and historicized fiction examines aesthetic contours including point of view and the concept of becoming in fiction and history heteroglossia and intertextuality the conceptions of contingency metaphor modality and chaos and temporality and rhetoric It conclude with thoughts and summaries to bring the whole work into focus

Europe in the Russian Mirror Alexander Gershenkron, 1970-03-27 First published in 1970 Professor Gershenkron s theme is the contribution which the study of Russian economic history can make to the problems which have preoccupied Western historians He first considers the way in which the case of the old Believers in Russia who refused to support the official church but played an important entrepreneurial role in nineteenth century economic development bears upon Max Weber s celebrated thesis on the relations between the Protestant ethic and the spirit of capitalism In the course of his discussion Professor Gerschenkron provides important information on the doctrinal beliefs of this group their social status and the extent to which they were persecuted and discriminated against by the State His conclusion is that the persecution certainly afforded sufficient impulse to engage in profitable activities and to develop the traits Weber considered as specific features of the capitalist spirit Auf der Suche nach der verlorenen Wahrheit Rainer Maria Kiesow, Dieter Simon, 2000

Iran Revisited Ali Pirzadeh, 2016-04-20 This book examines Modern Iran through an interdisciplinary analysis of its cultural norms history and institutional environment The goal is to underline strengths and weaknesses of Iranian society as a whole and to illustrate less prescriptive explanations for the way Iran is seen through a lens of persistent collective conduct rather than erratic historical occurrences Throughout its history Iran has been subject to many studies all of which have diagnosed the country's problem and prescribed solutions based on certain theoretical grounds This book intends to look inward seeking cultural explanations for Iran's perpetual inability to improve its society The theme in this book is based on the eloquent words of Nasir Khusrau a great Iranian poet az mast ki bar mast The words are from a poem describing a self adoring eagle that sees its life abruptly ended by an arrow winged with its own feathers the bird is doomed by its own vanity The closest interpretation of this idiom in Western Christian culture is you reap what you sow which conveys a similar message that underlines one's responsibility in the sense that sooner or later we must face the choices we make This would enable us to confront and live up to what Iran's history and culture have taught us
