Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History Ivor Goodson, Ari Antikainen, Pat Sikes, Molly Andrews, 2016-10-04 In recent decades there has been a substantial turn towards narrative and life history study. The embrace of narrative and life history work has accompanied the move to postmodernism and post structuralism across a wide range of disciplines: sociological studies, gender studies, cultural studies, social history, literary theory, and most recently psychology. Written by leading international scholars from the main contributing perspectives and disciplines, The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History seeks to capture the range and scope as well as the considerable complexity of the field of narrative study and life history work by situating these fields of study within the historical and contemporary context. Topics covered include: The historical emergences of life history and narrative study; Techniques for conducting life history and narrative study; Identity and politics; Generational history; Social and psycho-social approaches to narrative history. With chapters from expert contributors, this volume will prove a comprehensive and authoritative resource to students, researchers, and educators interested in narrative theory, analysis, and interpretation. The Living History Anthology Martha B. Katz-Hyman, Cliff Jones, Susan J. McCabe, Mary Seelhorst, 2018-12-07 The Living History Anthology brings together twenty-six practical essays on the craft of establishing and running living history museums. Contributions cover all aspects of developing and running a living history site. Including contributions on strategic planning, human resource management, research programs, collection policies, and engagement with varied audiences, including indigenous groups, the book demonstrates how to approach such tasks from a living history perspective. Topics unique to the sector, such as re-enactment, historic trade crafts, and working with machinery and livestock, are also covered. Each essay is briefly introduced and contextualized by the editors, while the collection is bookended by a new foreword and afterword from Debra A. Reid and an introduction from the editors. Representing the collective wisdom of the Association for Living History Farm and Agricultural Museums (ALHFAM) members across the decades, The Living History Anthology provides a valuable resource for all living history practitioners. It should also be of interest to students and scholars studying living history. Living History David B. Allison, 2016-05-13 Engaging audiences through costumed staff at museums and historic sites is one of the most effective ways to interpret the past for a public used to multimedia presentations on their TVs and computers. Here David Allison, who has worked at several museums known for effective enactments, provides the fascinating stories of three large living history museums as they adapt to changing audience expectations, a solid overview of the types of interpretation that living history museums use, best practices and practices for you to avoid from the reams of data and studies compiled by evaluators over the past 10 years, an exploration of the intersection of public history, individual agency, and business imperatives at museums and historic sites. Living History: Effective Costumed Interpretation and Enactment at Museums and Historic Sites looks at the history of these compelling techniques, provides best practices and strategies for implementing them today, and provides a roadmap for the future of costumed interpretation. Living History in the Museum.

Möglichkeiten und Grenzen einer populären Vermittlungsform Jan Carstensen, Uwe Meiners, Ruth-E. Mohrmann, 2008
 Living History die ganzheitliche Nachgestaltung alltags historischer Situationen erfreut sich seit einigen Jahren auch in Europa in vielen Museen zunehmender Beliebtheit Aber was versteht man eigentlich unter Living History Und sollten es Museen überhaupt in ihr Programm aufnehmen Ist es nicht einfach nur Show oder berwiegen doch die positiven Effekte Dieser Band präsentiert die Referate der Arbeitstagung der Volkskundlichen Kommission für Westfalen vom 19. 20. Oktober 2007 im Niedersächsischen Freilichtmuseum Cloppenburg auf der diese und auch weitere Fragen durchaus kontrovers diskutiert wurden Dabei wird Living History im Museum sowohl unter museologischen Aspekten analysiert als auch in der konkreten Museumsarbeit in den deutschen niederländischen und US-amerikanischen Museen vorgestellt In zwei Beiträgen kommen zudem Akteure zu Wort die in Living History Agenturen mit Museen zusammenarbeiten Living With History Fredrica Harris Thompson, 1999-01-25 Fredrica Harris Thompson a scholar of the English Reformation introduces us to the role that history has played in creating and shaping the Episcopal Church as we know it today In giving us the broad lessons of Anglican history she explores in detail both the historian's task and Anglicanism's distinctive history from its roots in Scripture and the English language Bible and prayerbook to its seventeenth century flowering in poetry and prose and the different forms it has assumed in the American landscape from the time of the Revolution right through to the late 20th century Thompson begins by discussing the relationship between history tradition and change and goes on to outline ten key touchstones or milestones in Christian history that are of particular interest to Anglicans Since it is the historian's task to write the unwritten as well as the official story of the church chapter three is a history of ministry in the church especially of lay ministry Chapter four looks at three ways that Anglicans have handled conflict and controversy throughout its history concentrating on the Elizabethan Settlement the American Civil War and the impact of Darwin and the new science Chapter five discusses how theological insight can be recycled to shed new light on the problems of today focusing on Anglican theology of creation and how it helps us address ecology as a spiritual crisis Finally chapter six focuses on how a living historical tradition affects the life and mission of the church today and how we are a part of that history Living History Museums Scott Magelssen, 2007-02-01 Living history museums are cultural institutions that merge historical exhibits with live costumed performance While unique and vitally important they often compromise historical accuracy and authenticity for the sake of tourism and entertainment value Many also pursue methods of performance and historiography that are becoming increasingly outdated Living History Museums Undoing History Through Performance examines the performance practices used by institutions such as Plimoth Plantation and Colonial Williamsburg and offers a new genealogy of living history museum performance in the U S and Europe Currently existing scholarship on living history museums addresses the subject from a museum studies or anthropology perspective Author Scott Magelssen however approaches the material from a background in theatre history and theory analyzing living history museums using postmodern methodology
