World Religions Western Traditions:

World Religions Amir Hussain, Roy C. Amore, Willard Oxtoby, 2018-09-15 World Religions Western Traditions Fifth Edition provides students with a thought provoking survey of Jewish Christian Muslim ancient indigenous and new religious traditions The expert contributors offer an authoritative examination of the origins central teachings divisions and branches rituals and practices influences on culture and responses to modern challenges for each tradition Ideal for courses in Western religions and comparative religions World Religions Western Traditions Fifth Edition combines a historically descriptive perspective with a spirit of sympathetic fascination World Religions Willard Gurdon Oxtoby, Amir Hussain, 2011 This contributed volume examines in detail the major Western religious traditions namely Judaism Zoroastrianism Christianity Islam and religions of the ancient world The text traces each tradition in depth from its origins through its development to the religion s meaning and practice in today s society Comprehensive and accessible the new third edition offers a thorough and engaging introduction to the Western faiths Understanding World Religions Irving Hexham, 2011-03-22 Globalization and high speed communication put twenty first century people in contact with adherents to a wide variety of world religions but usually valuable knowledge of these other traditions is limited at best On the one hand religious stereotypes abound hampering a serious exploration of unfamiliar philosophies and practices On the other hand the popular idea that all religions lead to the same God or the same moral life fails to account for the distinctive origins and radically different teachings found across the world s many religions Understanding World Religions presents religion as a complex and intriguing matrix of history philosophy culture beliefs and practices Hexham believes that a certain degree of objectivity and critique is inherent in the study of religion and he guides readers in responsible ways of carrying this out Of particular importance is Hexham s decision to explore African religions which have frequently been absent from major religion texts He surveys these in addition to varieties of Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam Living Religions - Western Traditions Mary Pat Fisher, 2003-05 For use as a core text for introductory and upper level courses in Western religions and Introduction to World Religions courses Can also be used as supplemental reading for individual religion courses Living Religions Western Traditions is a highly readable and stimulating survey of the major global religions and new religious movements that originated in the West The social context origins teachers scriptures and historical development of each faith are carefully explored with emphasis on how practitioners themselves understand their traditions Evocative illustrations first person interviews of ordinary people and boxes uncovering the spiritual roots of public figures bring this text to life Ecological Imaginations in the World Religions Tony Watling, 2011-10-20 The field of religion and ecology is an emerging and growing movement that is becoming relevant and influential in the world It seeks to analyse encourage inspire use compare and combine religious traditions to engage and shape environmental issues Tony Watling seeks to ethnographically analyse this important field and its expressions In particular he analyses and compares its explorations of different world religions for ecological themes and the resulting expressions of ecological visions in what he terms religious ecotopias idealized environmentally friendly re imaginings of nature and humanity and correspondingly religion which seek to influence environmental attitudes

Religious Epiphanies Across Traditions and Cultures James Kellenberger, 2017-08-08 This book explores religious epiphanies in which there is the appearance of God a god or a goddess or a manifestation of the divine or religious reality as received in human experience Drawing upon the scriptures of various traditions ancillary religious writings psychological and anthropological studies as well as reports of epiphanic experiences the book presents and examines epiphanies as they have occurred across global religious traditions and cultures historically and up to the present day Primarily providing a study of the great range of epiphanies in their phenomenal presentation Kellenberger also explores issues that arise for epiphanies such as the matter of their veridicality whether they are truly of or from the divine and the question of whether all epiphanies are of the same religious reality

The World's Religious Traditions Frank Whaling, 2016-10-06 The aim of this book is to make a major contribution to the field of religious studies while at the same time paying tribute to the work of Wilfred Smith Although the basis of the chapters is provided by Smith s themes of faith and tradition and Smith s approach to the study of religion this book stands in its own right as a significant addition to both content and method in the global history of religions First published in 1984 it includes contributions by Geoffrey Parrinder Annemarie Schimmel George Rupp Ninian Smart and others

World Religions in Practice Paul Gwynne, 2011-09-07 World Religions in Practice introduces five of the world s great religions Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam and explores how they are lived and expressed in custom ritual and symbol A major new textbook exploring the world s great religions through their customs rituals and everyday practices by focusing on this lived experience it goes beyond many traditional introductions to religious studies Adopts a directly comparative approach to develop a greater understanding of the nature of religion Each chapter engages with an individual theme such as birth death food pilgrimage and ethics to illustrate how religious practices are expressed Broadens students understanding by offering an impartial discussion of the similarities and differences between each religion Includes chapter by chapter opening themes and summaries and will be accompanied by a website at www.blackwellpublishing.com/gwynne featuring additional resources and study questions

The World's Religions Arvind Sharma, 2010-10-01 This wide ranging reader combines some of the best and most valuable contemporary perspectives from leading and significant writers teachers and thinkers who together address critical challenges and opportunities for the world s religions in a post 9 11 world Edited by Arvind Sharma and organized by topic the essays in this reader consider broad questions such as What influence does religion have on contemporary life The thematic arrangement of topics includes diverse religious perspectives on war terror peace human rights pluralism diversity gender spirituality the interreligious dialogue international diplomacy and globalization

The Legacy of Wilfred Cantwell Smith Ellen Bradshaw Aitken, Arvind Sharma, 2017-03-15 This is the first work to address the legacy of Wilfred Cantwell Smith 1916 2000 whose intellectual and institutional contributions helped shape the field of religious studies in the latter half of the twentieth century As a young scholar Smith taught Indian and Islamic history in Lahore for several years and witnessed the partition of India Upon his return to North America he obtained his PhD at Princeton University before embarking upon a long and distinguished career He founded the Institute of Islamic Studies at McGill University and served as director of the Center for the Study of World Religions at Harvard University Smith emphasized the place of the scholarly study of Islam in the Western academy long before Islam occupied its current position at the center of global politics challenged the notion of monolithic world religions and argued for the importance of dialogical processes and a personalist approach to the study of religion Contributors to this volume many of whom were Smith's students provide a wide ranging exploration of his influence and legacy

New Age Religion and Western Culture Wouter J. Hanegraaff, 2018-09-24 Recent years have seen a spectacular rise of the New Age movement and an ever increasing interest in its beliefs and manifestations This fascinating work presents the first ever comprehensive analysis of New Age Religion and its historical backgrounds thus providing the reader with a means of orientation in the bewildering variety of the movement Making extensive use of primary sources the author thematically analyses New Age beliefs from the perspective of the study of religions While looking at the historical backgrounds of the movement he convincingly argues that its foundations were laid by so called western esoteric traditions during the Renaissance Hanegraaff finally shows how the modern New Age movement emerged from the increasing secularization of those esoteric traditions during the 19th century This ground breaking publication is compulsive reading for all those involved or interested in the New Age movement

Hinduism as a Missionary Religion Arvind Sharma, 2012-01-02 Is Hinduism a missionary religion Merely posing this question is a novel and provocative act Popular and scholarly perception both ancient and modern puts Hinduism in the non missionary category In this intriguing book Arvind Sharma re opens the question Examining the historical evidence from the major Hindu eras the Vedic classical medieval and modern periods Sharma's investigation challenges the categories used in current scholarly discourse and finds them inadequate emphasizing the need to distinguish between a missionary religion and a proselytizing one A distinction rarely made it is nevertheless an illuminating and fruitful one that resonates with insights from the comparative study of religion Ultimately concluding that Hinduism is a missionary religion but not a proselytizing one Sharma's work provides us with new insights both on Hinduism and the consideration of religion itself

Comparing Faithfully Michelle Voss, 2016-09-01 Every generation of theologians must respond to its context by rearticulating the central tenets of the faith Interreligious comparison has been integral to this process from the start of the Christian tradition and is especially salient today The emerging field of comparative theology in which close study of another religious tradition yields new questions and categories for theological reflection in the scholar's home tradition embodies the ecumenical spirit of this moment This discipline has the potential to enrich systematic theology and by extension theological education at its foundations The essays in Comparing Faithfully demonstrate that engagement with religious diversity need not be an afterthought in the study of Christian systematic theology rather it can be a way into systematic theological thinking Each section invites students to test theological categories to consider Christian doctrine in relation to specific comparisons and to take up comparative study in their own contexts This resource for pastors and theology students reconsiders five central doctrines of the Christian faith in light of focused interreligious investigations The dialogical format of the book builds conversation about the doctrine of God theodicy humanity Christology and soteriology Its comparative essays span examples from Hindu Buddhist Jewish Muslim Jain and Confucian traditions as well as indigenous Aztec theology and contemporary spiritual but not religious thought to offer exciting new perspectives on Christian doctrine Tzedek, Tzedek Tirdof: Poetry, Prophecy, and Justice in Hebrew Scripture Andrew Colin Gow, Peter Sabo, 2017-09-25 Tzedek Tzedek Tirdof Poetry Prophecy and Justice in Hebrew Scripture Essays in Honor of Francis Landy on the Occasion of his 70th Birthday is a collection of essays by colleagues friends and students of Prof Francis Landy It is the second Festschrift dedicated to this remarkable teacher and colleague friend and mentor and thus bears witness to the remarkable esteem in which Prof Landy is held in the Biblical Studies community and beyond including literary studies film studies and poetry

Ninian Smart on World Religions: Traditions and the challenges of modernity. I. Individual traditions.

Buddhism. 'Mysticism and scripture in Theravāda Buddhism' Ninian Smart, 2009 Ninian Smart came to public prominence as the founding Professor of the first British university Department of Religious Studies in the late 1960s His pioneering views on education in religion proved hugely influential at all levels from primary schools to academic teaching and research An unending string of publications many of them accessible to the general public sustained a reputation that became worldwide Here for the first time a selection of Ninian Smart's wide ranging writings is organised systematically under a set of categories which both comprehend and also illuminate his varied output over a career spanning half a century The editor John Shepherd was Principal Lecturer in Religion and Philosophy at the University of Cumbria He first met Smart as a postgraduate student and recently helped establish the Ninian Smart Archive at the University of Lancaster

Theology of Migration in the Abrahamic Religions E. Padilla, P. Phan, 2014-10-02 This book provides an indispensable voice in the scholarly conversation on migration It shows how migration has shaped and has been shaped by the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam No theory of migration will be complete unless the theological insights of these religions are seriously taken into account Religious Foundations for Global Ethics Robert McLaren, 2016-12-05 Religious Foundations for Global Ethics is an overview of morality in a nation of immigrants starting with the basic question of what morality is and culminating in an examination of morality as a source of potential conflict and how those conflicts can be resolved peacefully The author strives to discuss ethical concerns from a variety of religious philosophical and psychological perspectives so that students are able to consider issues outside of their own cultural point of view Introduction to Philosophy of Religion James Kellenberger, 2017-09-29 Using various and competing religious sensibilities Introduction to the Philosophy of Religion helps students work through the traditional material and their own religious questions Second Edition: the Attributes of God in the Monotheistic Faiths of Judeo-Christian and Islamic Traditions Husein Khimjee Ph.D., 2018-08-08 This book is the Second Edition of the book first published in 2011 It is one of the first books of its kind in the market clearly explaining and expanding the Attributes of God in the Judeo Christian and Islamic traditions With the expansion of the book in its Second Edition it also contains discussion of Prophets and Messengers and in particular discusses the status of Abraham in all the Three monotheistic traditions The Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions This book is about God and our relationship with God What is more interesting about the Second Edition is that it expands the possibility of more research on the concept of prophethood in the family of Abrahamic faiths Further it discusses the status of Abraham according to the theology of St Paul comparing it briefly with Islam This book discusses also the status of Jesus in the Jewish and in the Islamic traditions Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Amanullah De Sondy, Michelle A. Gonzalez, William S. Green, 2020-10-15 Judaism Christianity and Islam An Introduction to Monotheism shows how a shared monotheistic legacy frames and helps explain the commonalities and disagreements among Judaism Christianity and Islam and their significant denominations in the world today Taking a thematic approach and covering both historical and contemporary dimensions the authors discuss how contemporary geographic and cultural contexts shape the expression of monotheism in the three religions It covers differences between religious expressions in Israeli Judaism Latin American Christianity and British Islam Topics discussed include scripture creation covenant and identity ritual ethics peoplehood and community redemption salvation life after death gender sexuality and marriage This introductory text which contains over 30 images a map a timeline chapter afterthoughts and critical questions is written by three authors with extensive teaching experience each a specialist in one of the three monotheistic traditions
