space for metamorphosis Neuroscientist and entrepreneur Anne Laure Le Cunff reveals that all you need is an experimental mindset to turn challenges into self discovery and doubt into opportunity Readers will replace the old linear model of success with a circular model of growth in which goals are discovered pursued and adapted not in a vacuum but in conversation with the larger world Throughout the book you will ask hard questions and design simple yet meaningful experiments to find the answers You will learn how to break free from the invisible cognitive scripts that shape your life how to harness the power of imperfection and how to make smarter decisions when the path forward is unclear This is a guide to Discover your true ambitions through conducting tiny personal experiments Dismantle harmful beliefs about success that have kept you stuck Dare to make decisions true to your own aspirations Stop trying to find your purpose and start living instead Tiny Experiments offers not just practical tools to make sure our most vital work gets done but a guide to reawakening our curiosity and drive in a noisy busy disaffected world so that we can discover and pursue our most authentic ambitions while making a meaningful contribution

Television Rewired Martha P. Nochimson, 2019-07-15 In 1990 American television experienced a seismic shift when Twin Peaks premiered eschewing formulaic plots and clear lines between heroes and villains This game changing series inspired a generation of show creators to experiment artistically transforming the small screen in ways that endure to this day Focusing on six shows Twin Peaks with a critical analysis of both the original series and the 2017 return The Wire Treme The Sopranos Mad Men and Girls Television Rewired explores what made these programs so extraordinary As their writers and producers fought against canned plots and moral simplicity they participated in the evolution of the exhilarating new auteur television while underscoring the fact that art and entertainment don't have to be mutually exclusive Nochimson also makes provocative distinctions between true auteur television and shows that were inspired by the freedom of the auteur series but nonetheless remained entrenched within the parameters of formula Providing opportunities for vigorous discussion Television Rewired will stimulate debates about which of the new television series since 1990 constitute art and which are tweaked business driven storytelling

The Works of Shonda Rhimes Anna Weinstein, 2024-08-22 The Works of Shonda Rhimes the first book in Bloomsbury's Screen Storytellers series brings together a collection of essays that look critically at the works of this award winning writer producer and CEO of the global media company Shondaland Shonda Rhimes's television series and those created and produced through Shondaland have left an important imprint on television history Beginning with her groundbreaking series Grey's Anatomy the series created under the umbrella of Rhimes's brand including Private Practice Scandal How to Get Away with Murder For the People Station 19 Bridgerton Inventing Anna and Queen Charlotte A Bridgerton Story have delighted global audiences with their innovative storytelling dynamic characters and the inclusion of contemporary social issues woven throughout the storylines In this collection of essays screenwriting and television studies scholars explore the ways in which Rhimes's series have been at the forefront of change in the television landscape in the past two decades including discussions of the representation of women

BIPOC and LGBTQ characters inclusivity in casting innovations in pilot and series development variations on genre and disruptive business and marketing practices This collection of essays offers emerging screenwriters and informed consumers of television insights into the cultural impact of Rhimes's work as well as how one of the most powerful television creators and showrunners in the history of the medium has crafted and shaped screen stories that speak to viewers spanning all demographics across the globe

Their Own Best Creations Annie Berke, 2022-01-04 A rich account that combines media industry history and cultural studies Their Own Best Creations looks at women writers' contributions to some of the most popular genres of postwar TV: comedy, variety, family sitcom, daytime soap, and suspense anthology During the 1950s when the commercial medium of television was still being defined, women writers navigated pressures at work, constructed public personas that reconciled traditional and progressive femininity, and asserted that a woman's point of view was essential to television as an art form The shows they authored allegorize these professional and personal pressures and articulate a nascent second wave feminist consciousness Annie Berke brings to light the long forgotten and under studied stories of these women writers and crucially places them in the historical and contemporary record

The No Club Linda Babcock, Brenda Peyser, Lise Vesterlund, Laurie R. Weingart, 2022-05-03 One of The Times Best Business Books of 2022 A practical guide for bringing gender equality to the workplace with a new imperative: unburden women's careers from work that goes unrewarded THE NO CLUB started when four women who were crushed by endless to-do lists banded together over 10 bottles of wine and vowed to get their work lives under control Running faster than ever, they nevertheless trailed behind their male colleagues And so they vowed to say no to requests that pulled them away from the work that mattered most to their careers This book reveals how their over a decade long journey and groundbreaking research uncovered that women everywhere are unfairly burdened with non-promotable work, a tremendous problem we can and must solve All organizations have work that no one wants to do: planning the office party, screening interns, attending to that time-consuming client or simply helping others with their work From office housework to important assignments that inevitably go unrewarded a woman most often takes on these tasks In study upon study professors Linda Babcock bestselling author of WHY WOMEN DON T ASK Brenda Peyser Lise Vesterlund and Laurie Weingart the original No Club document that women are disproportionately asked and expected to do this kind of work This imbalance leaves women overcommitted and underutilized as companies forfeit revenue productivity and top talent But it doesn t have to be this way THE NO CLUB walks you through how to make small yet important changes to your own workload and empowers women to make savvy decisions about what they take on At the same time the authors illuminate how lasting change calls for organizations to reassess how they assign and reward work to level the playing field With hard data personal anecdotes from women of all stripes practical self and workplace assessments and innovative advice from consulting in Fortune 500 companies this book will forever change the conversation about how we advance women s careers and achieve equality in the twenty first century The
