writings relate to key issues in today's world. The Fiction of Junot Díaz will be of interest to scholars and students of the immigrant experience as well as fans of this gifted writer. Junot Díaz José David Saldívar, 2022-08-29 In Junot Díaz On the Half Life of Love José David Saldívar offers a critical examination of one of the leading American writers of his generation. He explores Díaz's imaginative work and the diasporic and immigrant world he inhabits showing how his influences converged in his fiction and how his writing especially his Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao radically changed the course of US Latinx literature and created a new way of viewing the decolonial world. Saldívar examines several aspects of Díaz's career from his vexed relationship to the literary aesthetics of Whiteness that dominated his MFA experience and his critiques of the colonialities of power, race and gender in culture and societies of the Dominican Republic, United States and the Americas to his use of the science fiction imaginary to explore the capitalist zombification of our planet. Throughout Saldívar shows how Díaz's works exemplify the literary currents of the early twenty-first century. A Stranger's Journey David Mura, 2018-08 Long recognized as a master teacher at writing programs like VONA, the Loft and the Stonecoast MFA, with A Stranger's Journey David Mura has written a book on creative writing that addresses our increasingly diverse American literature. Mura argues for a more inclusive and expansive definition of craft particularly in relationship to race even as he elucidates timeless rules of narrative construction in fiction and memoir. His essays offer technique-focused readings of writers such as James Baldwin, ZZ Packer, Maxine Hong Kingston, Mary Karr and Garrett Hongo while making compelling connections to Mura's own life and work as a Japanese American writer. In A Stranger's Journey Mura poses two central questions. The first involves identity: How is writing an exploration of who one is and one's place in the world? Mura examines how the myriad identities in our changing contemporary canon have led to new challenges regarding both craft and pedagogy. Here like Toni Morrison's Playing in the Dark or Jeff Chang's Who We Be, A Stranger's Journey breaks new ground in our understanding of the relationship between the issues of race, literature and culture. The book's second central question involves structure: How does one tell a story? Mura provides clear, insightful narrative tools that any writer may use, taking in techniques from fiction, screenplays, playwriting and myth. Through this process Mura candidly explores the newly evolved aesthetic principles of memoir and how questions of identity occupy a central place in contemporary memoir. Drown Junot Díaz, 1997-07-01 From the beloved and award-winning author Junot Díaz, a spellbinding saga of a family's journey through the New World. A coming-of-age story of unparalleled power, Drown introduced the world to Junot Díaz's exhilarating talents. It also introduced an unforgettable narrator, Yunior, the haunted brilliant young man who tracks his family's precarious journey from the barrios of Santo Domingo to the tenements of industrial New Jersey and their epic passage from hope to loss to something like love. Here is the soulful, unsparing book that made Díaz a literary sensation.
