Zimbabwe Syllabus For Social Studies Primary School:

Handbook on Teaching Social Issues Ronald W. Evans, David W. Saxe, 2007-10-01 There is no book like this one for educators interested in issues centered teaching. More than 40 experts have contributed articles offering comprehensive coverage of the field of social issues education. In addition to a full examination of objectives and methods, contributors show how social issues can be taught as part of history, geography, the social sciences, and global and environmental studies. The challenges of assessment, curriculum, and effective teacher education are fully explored. With its teaching ideas and useful resource section, this book is an indispensable addition to your library. Contributors include Shirley Engle, Anna Ochoa, Becker, Jack Nelson, Carole Hahn, Byron Massialas, Jeff Passe, Jesus Garcia, Gloria Ladson Billings, Merry Merryfield, Patricia Avery, Sam Totten, Bill Wraga, Walter Parker, and James Shaver.

International Handbook of Curriculum Research William F. Pinar, 2003-04-01. The International Handbook of Curriculum Research is the first collection of reports on scholarly developments and school curriculum initiatives worldwide. Thirty-four essays on 28 nations, framed by four introductory chapters, provide a panoramic view.

The Palgrave Handbook of Race and the Arts in Education Amelia M. Kraehe, Rubén Gaztambide-Fernández, B. Stephen Carpenter II, 2018-07-12. The Palgrave Handbook of Race and the Arts in Education is the first edited volume to examine how race operates in and through the arts in education. Until now, no single source has brought together such an expansive and interdisciplinary collection in exploration of the ways in which music, visual art, theater, dance, and popular culture intertwine with racist ideologies and race making. Drawing on Critical Race Theory, contributing authors bring an international perspective to questions of racism and anti-racist interventions in the arts in education. The book's introduction provides a guiding framework for understanding the arts as white property in schools, museums, and informal education spaces. Each section is organized thematically around historical, discursive, empirical, and personal dimensions of the arts in education. This handbook is essential reading for students, educators, artists, and researchers across the fields of visual and performing arts, education, educational foundations, multicultural education, and curriculum and instruction.

Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom, 1992-1995 National Foundation For Educational Research, 1995. This latest volume of the Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom lists all the major research projects being undertaken in Britain during the latter months of 1992, the whole of 1993 and 1994, and the early months of 1995. Each entry provides names and addresses of the researchers, a detailed abstract, the source and amount of the grant, where applicable, the length of the project, and details of published material about the research.

Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha,Michael T. Kariwo,2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe s colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo's book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe's education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country's education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia

History Education in Africa Gideon Boadu, Charles Adabo Oppong, 2024-07-12 This collection brings together African scholars in Africa and the diaspora to contribute to scholarly debates about critical issues in history teaching and learning in African schools The book contributes to filling the gap in knowledge on African history associated pedagogies and practices and its consequent effects on research and the declining popularity of history in African Schools Specifically the volume a examines current trends and practices in history education in African schools b unveils the challenges and subtleties of teaching the next generation of teachers and students and c examines classroom practices and opportunities for engagement with historical concepts in African schools The book adds a much needed African voice to the international history education literature and contribute to strengthening the place of history teaching and learning in Africa

Exploring Curriculum Landscapes in Africa Oscar Koopman, Karen J. Koopman, Wally Lumadi, Samuel Amponsah, 2025-06-13 This book examines post colonial curriculum transformation across seven African nations These are South Africa Egypt Cameroon Nigeria Zimbabwe Namibia and Ghana It investigates whether these educational systems have truly decolonized their curricula or still remain rooted in Western frameworks despite achieving political independence Through analysis of curriculum policies and teaching practices the authors explore educational reform dynamics in post colonial African contexts The book evaluates how successfully these systems have incorporated indigenous knowledge and local ways of knowing versus continuing to propagate Western paradigms The work provides both theoretical and empirical analysis of challenges and opportunities in rebuilding African education systems that reflect local cultural values while addressing modern educational needs Zimbabwe National Bibliography ,1990

The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies Maia Carter Hallward, Ji Eun Kim, Cécile Mouly, Timothy Seidel, Zubairu Wai, 2025-06-28 A contemporary exploration of peace and conflict studies that is both broad and critical Politics, Christianity and Society in Malawi R. Ross, O. Mulwafu, 2020-02-27 With the death of John McCracken in 2017 Malawi lost a pre eminent historian This book celebrates McCrackens contribution to the study of Malawis history and seeks to build on his legacy Part of his genius was that he identified themes that hold the key to understanding the history of Malawi in its broader perspective The authors contributing to this volume address these themes assessing the progress of historiography and setting an agenda for the further advance of historical studies The book is a valuable resource for students researchers and all who are interested in gaining a deeper understanding of Malawis past and present
