Fictions of Home Martin Mühlheim, 2018-04-23 This study aims to counter right wing discourses of belonging It discusses key theoretical concepts for the study of home focusing in particular on Marxist feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic contributions The book also maintains that postmodern celebrations of nomadism and exile tend to be incapable of providing an alternative to conservative xenophobic appropriations of home In detailed readings of one film and six novels a view is developed according to which home as a spatio temporal imaginary is rooted in our species being and as such constitutes the inevitable starting point for any progressive politics

Literature: An Introduction to Theory and Analysis Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, Lasse Horne Kjøeldgaard, Lis Møller, Lilian Munk Røsing, Peter Simonsen, Dan Ringgaard, 2017-03-09 How does literature work And what does it mean How does it relate to the world to politics to history to the environment How do we analyse and interpret a literary text paying attention to its specific poetic and fictitious qualities This wide ranging introduction helps students to explore these and many other essential questions in the study of literature criticism and theory In a series of introductory chapters leading international scholars present the fundamental topics of literary studies through conceptual definitions as well as interpretative readings of works familiar from a range of world literary traditions In an easy to navigate format Literature An Introduction to Theory and Analysis covers such topics as Key definitions from plot

character and style to genre trope and author Literature's relationship to the surrounding world ethics politics gender and nature Modes of literature and criticism from books to performance from creative to critical writing With annotated reading guides throughout and a glossary of major critical schools to help students when studying revising and writing essays this is an essential introduction and reference guide to the study of literature at all levels The companion website to the book litdhau.dk focuses on digital humanities and literary studies For each topic in the book you will find an introduction to computational aspects of the topic approaches for both newcomers and advanced users and references to tools scripts and articles The website also has a comprehensive and well structured reference page

Literature and Understanding Jon Phelan, 2020-10-08 Literature and Understanding investigates the cognitive gain from literature by focussing on a reader's close analysis of a literary text It examines the meaning of literature outlines the most prominent positions in the literary cognitivism debate explores the practice of close reading from a philosophical perspective provides a fresh account of what we mean by understanding and in so doing opens up a new area of research in the philosophy of literature This book provides a different reply to the challenge that we can't learn anything worthwhile from reading literary fiction It makes the innovative case that reading literary fiction as literature rather than as fiction stimulates five relevant senses of understanding The book uses examples of irony metaphor play with perspective and ambiguity to illustrate this contention Before arguing that these five senses of understanding bridge the gap between our understanding of a literary text and our understanding of the world beyond that text The book will be of great interest for researchers scholars and post graduate students in the fields of aesthetics literary theory literature in education and pedagogy

Spanish Literature David William Foster,Daniel Altamiranda,Carmen Urioste-Azcorra,2001 Reading Literature and Chronic Pain Josie Billington,2025-05-15 This valuable and insightful study into chronic pain and its treatment advances a striking analysis of the complex phenomenon of chronic pain also attesting to the importance of the medical humanities in addressing urgent questions that medical science alone cannot resolve The primary purpose of this book is twofold First to demonstrate empirically against a conceptual background drawn from multiple disciplines and knowledge bases historical medical neurobiological psychological socio anthropological how an apparently soft intervention such as literary reading can effectively combat symptoms of a condition as intractable as chronic pain Second to explore what this evidence tells us about pain as a lived experience as well as a condition in urgent need of new treatment options and about literature and the reading of fiction and poetry as therapeutic influences in contemporary health and healthcare most particularly in alleviating the often severe mental health difficulties with which chronic pain is almost universally associated Based on unique empirical research with people who are living with chronic pain this book is the first of its kind to demonstrate the value of literature and literary reading both as a discourse for understanding and finding pain and as an intervention in its treatment
