Mezzich, T. Bedirhan Ustun, 2002-01-01 The classification of mental disorders improved greatly in the last decade of the 20th century and now provides a reliable operation tool The first set of papers in this publication present the views on international classification and diagnosis of the WHO and the APA as well as the results of a large international survey on the usage and perceived value of ICD 10 and related diagnostic systems The second group of papers topically review international experience with current diagnostic systems The third set delves into some of the key conceptual bases for the development of future diagnostic systems The fourth group review ongoing work on adaptations of and complements to the ICD The last section offers incisive commentaries on integrative approaches and future steps Summarizing the current knowledge of the field of the international system for classification and diagnosis this publication is essential reading for psychiatrists psychologists as well as public health services Life Georges Perec, 2012-04-24 In this ingenious book Perec creates an entire microcosm in a Paris apartment block Serge Valene wants to make an elaborate painting of the building he has made his home for the last sixty years As he plans his picture he contemplates the lives of all the people he has ever known there Chapter by chapter the narrative moves around the building revealing a marvellously diverse cast of characters in a series of every more unlikely tales which range from an avenging murderer to an eccentric English millionaire who has devised the ultimate pastime British Books in Print ,1979 The Cumulative Book Index ,1990 A world list of books in the English language Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971 Social Mobility in Kerala Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2000-12-20 The Izhavas are an ex untouchable community in the southern Indian state of Kerala Politically and economically weak stigmatised as toddy tappers and devil dancers and considered unapproachable by clean caste Hindus a century ago Izhavas were associated with other manual labouring untouchable castes In recent decades they have sought to improve their position by accumulating economic symbolic and cultural capital through employment religion politics migration marriage education and have tried to assert their right to mobility often in the face of opposition from their high status Christian and Nayar neighbours This study examines how Izhavas through repudiation of their nineteenth century identity and search for mobility have come into complex relationships with modernity colonialism and globalisation Filippo Osella and Caroline Osella highlight the complexities and contradictions of modern identity both locally and globally The authors approach builds upon and goes beyond a south Asian focus showing how the Izhavas represent the rise of formerly stigmatised groups who remain at the same time trapped by stereotype and material disadvantage Absolute mobility they argue has not led to relative mobility within a society which remains stratified and prone to new forms of social exclusion Newsletter ,1990 Cycle World Magazine ,1975-01 Rivers of Living Water
