How To Quit Being A Loser Wuth Women:

How to Get Girls Or How to Stop Being Dumb with Women A. Mann, 2008 Men and their egos often sabotage relationships From boys to grown men lessons get lost in an erroneous reality Tim Kelleher believes that males have been conscripted into a thought system that began in ancient times and dictates their need to be in control However they must discover a new method to attract love in their lives How to Get Girls offers men a guide to transcend what was to reach what can be This journey will show men how to accept themselves with approval and love and in turn find someone who will be a true partner and friend for a lifetime Kelleher provides several examples to help men have a better understanding of why they are the way they are and how they can modify their behavior Using his own life experiences as an example Kelleher gives hope to men who want to be the best they can be by releasing unnecessary baggage Light the path toward a healthy relationship and find inner peace with this indispensable guide Emotional Histories in the Fight to End Prostitution Michele Renée Greer, 2022-10-06 This book sheds new light on the ongoing fight to end prostitution through a historical study of its emotional communities An issue that has long been the subject of much debate amongst feminists governments and communities alike the history of the fight to end prostitution has an important bearing on feminist politics today This book identifies key abolitionist emotional communities tracing their origins interactions and evolutions with various historical and contemporary emotional styles In doing so Emotional Histories in the Fight to End Prostitution highlights a more nuanced view of the movement s history From Moral Liberals in 19th century Britain to the American anti pornography movement and Swedish Nordic Model Emotional Histories in the Fight to End Prostitution shows how emotional styles and practices have influenced the evolution of the fight against prostitution in Britain the United States and Western Europe From the fear of sin to maternal compassion and survivor shame and loss Michele Greer historicizes emotions and studies them as dynamic forms of situated knowledge In doing so she sheds light on how women s lived experiences have been transformed and politicized and raises important questions around how feminist emotions in social protest can not only challenge but unknowingly defend existing socio political conventions and inequalities Highlighting the links between past and present forms of abolitionism it shows that this connection is more complex and far reaching than currently assumed and offers new perspectives on the history of emotions Why do women stop being romantic when they get into relationships? TJ Clemons, This is something that I have really been noticing over the past few years I have no problem with the concept of a serious relationship but I do need a reason to fully commit and be with one woman and settle down I m pretty sure a lot of men feel exactly like I do on some level Why put any effort into a boring or otherwise detached union with a member of the opposite sex when a better situation is out there and I m still searching for something or someone better to come along It may be a sign of the times I hear this same comment for women all the time They say that the guy that she is dating has no time for her and then you find out the reason why is because he is always at work This is a part of growing up Somebody has to be employed in order for the household bills to get paid They seem to be more interested in the type of guy who lives off her and various other women They will often chase of an emotionally unavailable male suiter who has no interest in being with her Then they complain that they cannot find a good man And when they do find a man who adores her and the ground that she walks her she will treat him like a second class citizen This may have something to do with their biological impulse to procreate with one of those alpha males who spread their seed without thinking about any consequences or future outcomes It is all fun and games until children get introduced into this scenario Then they end up fighting like hens for this irresponsible rooster s attention Many members of the female gender will disagree with my assertions but the it is obvious to the others around them I have also observed the relationship dynamics of many women involved with good responsible men Many of these women put little or no romantic effort into their relations with them unless another female notices his good qualities Then they will fight to keep him when she should have been putting more interest in her affiliation with him This is exactly how men get entangled with a side chick or mistress Women get too comfortable instead of putting more interest in their relationship or marriages They will deny that this is going on in the first place I see it all the time I m basically saying that if you love the man you are with show him some extra affection sometimes Cook him a special meal Show him some romantic interest sometimes Continue to build on your situation and make it better The reason for being together is to grow as a couple and endure every aspect of life as a loving unit We all get caught up in the demands of everyday life but if you are sharing your life with someone special show them that you care Show them the love you have for them while you build a future together

When Women Stop Hating Their Bodies Jane R. Hirschmann, 2010-12-22 Will empower all women to stop believing that our bodies are the problems dieting the solution Harriet Lerner Ph D author of The Dance of Anger In this revolutionary new book bestselling authors Carol Munter and Jane Hirschmann explore the myriad reasons why women cling to diets despite overwhelming evidence that diets don t work In fact diets turn us into compulsive eaters obsessed with food and weight Munter and Hirschmann call this syndrome Bad Body Fever and demonstrate how bad body thoughts are clues to our emotional lives They explore the difficulties women encounter replacing dieting with demand feeding And finally they teach us how to think about our problems rather than eat about them so that food can resume its proper place in our lives Many women will find in these pages exactly what they need determined optimistic and resourceful coaches pausing at the right moments to acknowledge the difficulty of change then passionately urging them to press on Susan C Wooley Ph D Professor of Psychology Codirector Eating Disorder Center University of Cincinnati Medical Center
