How to be Both Ali Smith, 2014-08-28 WINNER OF THE BAILEYS WOMEN'S PRIZE FOR FICTION 2015 WINNER OF THE GOLDSMITHS PRIZE 2014 SHORTLISTED FOR THE MAN BOOKER PRIZE 2014 WINNER OF THE 2014 COSTA NOVEL AWARD WINNER OF THE SALTIRE SOCIETY LITERARY BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD 2014 NOMINATED FOR THE FOLIO PRIZE 2015 How to be both is the dazzling new novel by Ali Smith. Passionate, compassionate, vitally inventive and scrupulously playful, Ali Smith's novels are like nothing else. How to be both is a novel all about art's versatility. Borrowing from painting's fresco technique to make an original literary double take, it's a fast-moving genre-bending conversation between forms, times, truths and fictions. There's a renaissance artist of the 1460s. There's the child of a child of the 1960s. Two tales of love and injustice twist into a singular yarn where time gets timeless, structural gets playful, knowing gets mysterious, fictional gets real, and all life's givens get given a second chance. Brims with palpable joy. Daily Telegraph. She's a genius, genuinely modern in the heroic, glorious sense. Alain de Botton. I take my hat off to Ali Smith. Her writing lifts the soul. Evening Standard. Ali Smith was born in Inverness in 1962 and lives in Cambridge. She is the author of Artful, There but for the Free Love, Like Hotel World, Other Stories, and Other Stories. The Whole Story and Other Stories. The Accidental Girl. Meets Boy and The First Person and Other Stories.

Documents concernant le film "Quatre de l'infanterie", d'après un roman d'Ernest Johannsen , How to be both Ali Smith, 2015-10-13 MAN BOOKER PRIZE FINALIST. A novel all about art's versatility, borrowing from painting's fresco technique to make an original literary double take. Cements Smith's reputation as one of the finest and most innovative of our contemporary writers. By some divine alchemy, she is both funny and moving; she combines intellectual rigor with whimsy. The Los Angeles Review of Books. How to be both is a fast-moving genre-bending conversation between forms, times, truths and fictions. There's a Renaissance artist of the 1460s. Merten, 2021-05-27. Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts, this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself. In this book, reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re-considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse. The history of literary and cultural reading, including poststructuralism and critical theory, is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined. Diffraction Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself, firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading's intervention in and co-creation of the world in which we live

New Approaches to Transcodification Massimo Fusillo, Dorian Legge, Mirko Lino, Mattia Petricola, Gianluigi Rossini, 2025-08-04 This collection aims to renew our perspective on adaptation and intermedial processes by thinking of them in terms of codes rather than media. As a result, the notion of transcodification emerges as a crucial tool in order to study the circulation of semiotic and aesthetic resources across disciplines, knowledge systems, and cultures. Defined as the transfer of meaning-making potential from one semiotic domain to another, transcodification both includes and transcends intermediality, thus dramatically expanding the scope and research potential of adaptation and intermedial studies. The essays collected here apply this framework to an incredibly wide variety of objects and issues, from the relationship between art and historiography to the visual culture of finance, from contemporary approaches to ekphrasis to the hidden labor of screenwriters, from modern surveillance to digital comics, from fansubbing to the reception of the classical world in the digital age, from medieval theater to the role of videogames in the war on terror. By fostering dialogue between radically different disciplines, the book offers a unique approach to the study of semiotic interrelations across the most diverse aspects of human culture.

Rethinking Identities Across Boundaries Claudia Capancioni, Mariaconcetta Costantini, Mara Mattoscio, 2023-11-22 This collection of essays aims to widen the current critique on borders by examining their entanglements with constructions of identity and disciplinary categories. In particular, it calls into question established models of gender, notions of narrative genres, and typological genera of borders in today's literary, artistic, philosophical, and socio-political discourse. The chapters interrogate boundaries and boundary crossing not only in terms of geographical frontiers and the physical acts of trespassing but also as discursive constructs that police crossing subjects as gendered subjects on the one hand and identify artistic genres and academic disciplines as fixed, sealed in ways of understanding the world on the other. Taking inspiration from the multiple meanings of the Italian word genere which stands for gender, genre, and typology, the volume reflects on the gendered narrative and typological nature of borders and border imagery and on the significance and potentialities of crossover phenomena taking place in borderlands in the fields of arts, literature, anthropology, sociology, and philosophy.

Contemporary Fictions of Attention Alice Bennett, 2018-08-09 With the supposed shortening of our attention spans, what future is there for fiction in the age of the internet? Contemporary Fictions of Attention rejects this discourse of distraction crisis which suggests that the future of reading is in peril and instead finds that contemporary writers construct fictions of attention that find some value in states or moments of inattention. Through discussion of work by a diverse selection of writers including Joshua Cohen, Ben Lerner, Tom McCarthy, Ali Smith, Zadie Smith, and David Foster Wallace, this book identifies how fiction prompts readers to become peripherally aware of their own attention Contemporary Fictions of Attention locates a common interest in attention within 21st century fiction and connects this interest to a series of debates surrounding ethics temporality the everyday boredom work and self discipline in contemporary culture Artful Ali Smith,2012-11-01 A playful form bending novel from the Booker Prize shortlisted Women s Prize winning author of How to be both and the critically acclaimed Seasonal quartet Playful and audacious Independent Narrated by a character who is haunted literally by a former lover Artful slips slyly between fiction and essay guiding the reader thrillingly through a sequence of ideas on art and literature With Smith s trademark humour inventiveness poignancy and critical insight this is unique experiment in form style life love death immortality and what art can mean Based on four electrifying lectures given by the author at Oxford University and exploring the explosive connections between art story memory and grief Artful is a tidal wave of ideas to blast away the cobwebs and change how you see the world Artful is a revelation a new kind of book altogether makes you glad to be alive Jackie Kay Powerful and moving London Review of Books Blending of criticism and fiction Artful belongs in a genre of its own Joyful for anyone interested in the art of writing and living well Anita Sethi New Statesman

Postfeminist Film & Literary Aesthetics Alyce Corbett,2025-05-23 Postfeminist Film Literary Aesthetics In Search of the Female Gaze represents a novel and comprehensive study of the aesthetic and affective textual innovations of women in the 21st century from a postfeminist perspective This book both defines and helps shape the contours of four fast growing critically and commercially popular modes millennial film and fiction metamodernism an anti narrative and decorative realm named here as still life and new cli fi in which there is no clear male equivalent or in which women s work can be read as a distinct aesthetic force As the textual constellation of now is being mapped and its key texts being canonised this book contributes to the current recentring of aesthetic taste that is occurring in literature film and surrounding criticism making greater space for the appreciation of female aesthetics and for future inquiries in this field

Queer and Feminist Theories of Narrative Tory Young,2021-05-13 This book argues for the importance of narrative theories which consider gender and sexuality through the analysis of a diverse range of texts and media Classical Narratology an allegedly neutral descriptive system for features of narrative has been replaced by a diverse set of theories which are attentive to the contexts in which narratives are composed and received Issues of gender and sexuality have nevertheless been sidelined by new strands which consider for example cognitive transmedial national or historical inflections instead Through consideration of texts including the MTV series Faking It and the papers of a nineteenth century activist Queer and Feminist Theories of Narrative heeds the original call of feminist narratologists for the consideration of a broader and larger corpus of material Through analysis of issues including the popular representation of lesbian desire the queer narrative voice invisibility and power in the digital age embodiment and cognitive narratology reading and racial codes this book argues that a named strand of narrative theory which employs feminist and queer theories as intersectional vectors is contemporary and urgent The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Textual Practice      Literary Fictions of the Contemporary Art System Carlos Garrido Castellano, 2022-07-29 The main objective of this book is to explain how contemporary literatures in Spanish and Portuguese are dealing with artistic creativity when artmaking is no longer a specialised field of cultural production but rather an expanded field of socioeconomic interaction personal and creative self definition and collective imagination The project positions the contemporary art novel as the most suitable place to understand how the economisation of cultural labour is affecting writers and artists alike The authors examined in this book including Jos Saramago Rita Indiana Hern ndez Mar a Gainza Mayra Santos Febres and Ondjaki amongst others explore the contradictions of the art market the dynamics of art education the multifaceted activity of curators and socially engaged artists in relation to broader debates on the role of culture in the configuration of socioeconomic dynamics The book maps a new trend within contemporary literature that taps into the visual art system to reassess the role of literature in critical ways      Consuming History Jerome de Groot, 2016-02-08 Consuming History examines how history works in contemporary popular culture Analysing a wide range of cultural entities from computer games to daytime television it investigates the ways in which society consumes history and how a reading of this consumption can help us understand popular culture and issues of representation In this second edition Jerome de Groot probes how museums have responded to the heritage debate and how new technologies from online game playing to internet genealogy have brought about a shift in access to history discussing the often conflicted relationship between public and academic history and raising important questions about the theory and practice of history as a discipline Fully revised throughout with up to date examples from sources such as Wolf Hall Game of Thrones and 12 Years a Slave this edition also includes new sections on the historical novel gaming social media and genealogy It considers new ground breaking texts and media such as YouTube in addition to entities and practices such as re enactment that have been underrepresented in historical discussion thus far Engaging with a broad spectrum of source material and comparing the experiences of the UK the USA France and Germany as well as exploring more global trends Consuming History offers an essential path through the debates for readers interested in history cultural studies and the media      Feminism and Women's Writing Catherine Riley, 2018-02-09 Explores the transformative reign of the Catholic King James VII and the revolution that brought about his fall      The Routledge History of Literature in English Ronald Carter, John McRae, 2016-10-04 The Routledge History of Literature in English covers the main developments in the history of British and Irish literature with accompanying language notes which explore the interrelationships between language and literature at each stage With a span from AD 600 to the present day it emphasises the growth of literary writing its traditions conventions and changing characteristics and includes literature from the margins both geographical and cultural Extensive quotations from poetry prose and drama underpin the narrative The third edition covers recent developments in literary and cultural theory and features a new chapter on novels drama and poetry in the 21st century examples of analysis of key texts drawn from across the history of British and Irish literature including material from Chaucer Shakespeare John Keats and Virginia Woolf an extensive companion website including extra language notes and key text analysis lists of Booker Costa and Nobel literature prize winners and an A Z of authors and topics The Routledge History of Literature in English is an invaluable reference for any student of English literature and language

Double Helix History Jerome De Groot, 2022-08-29 Double Helix History examines the interface between genetics and history in order to investigate the plausibility of new knowledge derived from scientific methods and to reflect upon what it might mean for the practice of history Since the mapping of the human genome in 2001 there has been an expansion in the use of genetic information for historical investigation Geneticists are confident that this has changed the way we know the past This book considers the practicalities and implications of this seemingly new way of understanding the human past using genetics It provides the first sustained engagement with these so called genomic histories The book investigates the ways that genetic awareness and practice is seemingly changing historical practice and conceptualisation Linking six concepts Public Practice Ethics Politics Self and Imagination Double Helix History outlines the ways that genetic information being postgenomic the public life of DNA and the genetic historical imaginary work on the body on collective memory on the historical imagination on the ethics of historical investigation on the articulation of history and on the collection and interpretation of data regarding the past This book will appeal to researchers and students alike interested in DNA genetics and historiography

Narrative Strategies in the Reconstruction of History Ana Fernandes, 2018-12-14 This book enquires into the processes by which certain contemporary women pay testimony to history It examines the reasons why they recreate the past whether political social or artistic and the strategies employed to establish a comparison with the present The focus is on authors such as A S Byatt Pat Barker Anne Enright Tracy Chevalier and Ali Smith The volume demonstrates and discusses parallels shifts and transformations in the writing of these authors and in the rewriting of history in contemporary fiction by women authors
