Cultural Spaces in International Business Taran Patel,Ahmad M. Salih,2022-04-19 Culture studies in international business are passing through difficult times of scrutiny and critique This is due to the fact that the paradigms approaches and methods used so far to study culture have been limited in their scope For several decades now approaches that consider national cultures and geo ethnic origins of interacting individuals have dominated management literature This book distinguishes itself from other books on Culture in International Business CIB studies in two important ways First it illustrates how Mary Douglas s Cultural Theory framework referred to commonly as DCF can be used to explore different aspects of international business This sets the stage for future scholars to consider DCF as an alternative tool of cultural sense making as opposed to limiting themselves to categorical frameworks grounded in static notions of national and or corporate culture The second unique feature is that it focuses on the complexities of the applied side of culture i e it takes a culture in practice perspective while simultaneously emphasizing the dynamicity and diversity of culture The book concludes by offering suggestions for the future of CIB studies This domain it predicts may witness significant changes in the way culture is seen as influencing workplace relations It also identifies other areas on which CIB scholars may need to focus attention in the future culture in an increasingly digitalized world culture and the organization as a system and culture and the intelligent knowledgeable organization It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of cross cultural management international business human resource management

Organization Studies and Posthumanism François-Xavier de Vaujany,Silvia Gherardi,Polyana Silva,2024-04-05 This book aims at exploring the reception of critical posthumanist conversations in the context of Management and Organization Studies It constitutes an invitation to de center the human subject and thus an invitation to the ongoing deconstruction of humanism The project is not to deny humans but to position them in relation to other nonhumans more than humans the non living world and all the missing masses from organizational inquiry What is under critique is humanism s anthropocentrism essentialism exceptionalism and speciesism in the context of the Anthropocene and the contemporary crisis the world experiences From climate change to the loss of sense at work to the new geopolitical crisis to the unknown effects of the diffusion of AI all these powerful forces have implications for organizations and organizing A re imagination of concepts theories and methods is needed in organization studies to cope with the challenge of a more than human world

Trends in business ethics Cees van Dam,L. Stallaert,2012-12-06 In August 1976 the research seminar Decision making in business was organized at Nijenrode The Netherlands School of Business More than fifty scientists and practitioners from nine countries presented research papers in one of the six discussion groups Some of them also presented some of their ideas in front of a large mixed audience at a one day symposium Many of the papers presented at Nijenrode were of such a high quality that the decision to publish a selection of them was an easy one At the same time the new series Nijenrode studies in business was initiated All who were involved the policy committee Of the Nijenrode studies the advisory and editorial board of the series the publisher and the organizing committee of the seminar and symposium acclaimed the idea of publishing three volumes in the new series A collection of eleven papers could be grouped under the title Trends in managerial and financial accounting and has been published as volume 1 of this series A collection of fourteen papers has been published as the second volume under the title Trends in financial decision making while this volume consisting of twelve papers and an introduction explores the theme Trends in business ethics The introduction by Stanley L Jaki was written for the symposium It suggests why the papers of Pjotr Hesselings Antoine Kreykamp and Richard H Viola which were not presented at Nijenrode are introduced here

Encyclopedia of Business and Professional Ethics Deborah C Poff, Alex C.
