'Black but Human' Carmen Fracchia,2019-10-16 Black but Human is the first study to focus on the visual representations of African slaves and ex slaves in Spain during the Hapsburg dynasty The Afro Hispanic proverb Black but Human is the main thread of the six chapters and serves as a lens through which to explore the ways in which a certain visual representation of slavery both embodies and reproduces hegemonic visions of enslaved and liberated Africans and at the same time provides material for critical and emancipatory practices by Afro Hispanics themselves The African presence in the Iberian Peninsula between the late fifteenth century and the end of the seventeenth century was as a result of the institutionalization of the local and transatlantic slave trades In addition to the Moors Berbers and Turks born as slaves there were approximately two million enslaved people in the kingdoms of Castile Arag n and Portugal The Black but Human topos that emerges from the African work songs and poems written by Afro Hispanics encodes the multi layered processes through which a black emancipatory subject emerges and a black nation forges a collective resistance It is visually articulated by Afro Hispanic and Spanish artists in religious paintings and in the genres of self portraiture and portraiture This extraordinary imagery coexists with the stereotypical representations of African slaves and ex slaves by Spanish sculptors engravers jewellers and painters mainly in the religious visual form and by European draftsmen and miniaturists in their landscape drawings and sketches for costume books

Science, Ethics, and Politics Kristen Renwick Monroe,2015-11-17 The relationship between science and ethics has been subject to much debate This volume demonstrates the mutually beneficial relationship that can take place between ethics and science It presents work that utilises the tools of science broadly conceptualised to elucidate ethical issues showing that careful scientific analysis of ethical issues can reveal new insights This is supplemented by conversations with the authors some of them pre eminent scientists addressing issues of ethics including two Nobel laureates to learn how they came to the study of ethics and ask how they conceptualise and think about ethical issues Science Ethics and Politics provides substantive insight into particular ethical issues ranging from issues of torture during war to parents obligations to children This book is designed as a complement to traditional texts on ethics and should appeal to students of ethics as well as to the general public

The Silver of the Sierra Madre John Mason Hart,2022-07-12 In the great barranca known today as Copper Canyon the small mining town of Batopilas once experienced a silver bonanza among the largest ever known American investors believing that Mexico offered an unexploited cornucopia began purchasing mines in the Sierra Madre seeking to expand their hold on natural resources outside U S borders From 1861 until the Revolution of 1910 the men of the Batopilas Mining Company ruled the region using their wealth armed might and extensive connections The technology industrialism and politics their interests brought to this remote community tied the Tarahumara Yaqui Mayo and other peoples of the barrancas directly to the economies of the United States and China Local society was revolutionized and a dramatic tapestry of human interactions was created Based on many volumes of mining company records The Silver of the Sierra Madre exposes the mentality and methods of mine owners John Robinson and Alexander Boss Shepherd vividly detailing their exploitation of the people and the natural resources of Chihuahua Hart aptly demonstrates the human and financial losses resulting from President Porfirio Díaz's development programs which relied on foreign investors, foreign managers and foreign technology. This unprecedented work also provides a highly interesting ethnographic and social description of one of the least known areas of Mexico. It is a tale of power and desperation, respect and arrogance, adventure and tragedy, and ultimately triumph and survival. Tension-Type and Cervicogenic Headache César

Fernández-de-las-Peñas, Lars Arendt-Nielsen, Robert D. Gerwin, 2010-10-22. This is the first book for the new Series Contemporary Issues in Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation Medicine. This textbook will assess both clinical and research aspects of the diagnosis and management of two highly prevalent headache disorders: tension type and cervicogenic headaches. This textbook will cover both physical therapy and physical medicine approaches to the management of these headache disorders. Soldiers of the Cross John Baptist Salpointe, 1898 Household Servants and Slaves Diane

Wolfthal, 2022-04-12. The first book length study of household servants and slaves exploring a visual history over 400 years and four continents. The first book length study of both images of ordinary household workers and their material culture. Household Servants and Slaves: A Visual History 1300-1700 covers four hundred years and four continents, facilitating a better understanding of the changes in service that occurred as Europe developed a monetary economy, global trade and colonialism. Diane Wolfthal presents new interpretations of artists including the Limbourg brothers, Albrecht Dürer, Paolo Veronese and Diego Velázquez, but also explores numerous long neglected objects including independent portraits of ordinary servants, servant dolls and their miniature cleaning utensils and dummy boards, candlesticks and tablestands in the form of servants and slaves. Wolfthal analyzes the intersection of class, race and gender while also interrogating the ideology of service, investigating both the material conditions of household workers' lives and the immaterial qualities with which they were associated. If images repeatedly relegated servants to the background, then this book does the reverse: it foregrounds these figures in order to better understand the ideological and aesthetic functions that they served. For Younger
