

The background of the book cover is a vibrant blue sky with wispy white clouds. In the foreground, a sleek, dark-colored flying car with a large circular window and a propeller-like structure at the rear is shown in flight. Below the car, a futuristic cityscape is visible, featuring several tall, dark skyscrapers and a body of water. On the right side of the cover, a tall, white, vertical structure resembling a tower or a space elevator extends from the city towards the top of the frame. Three small, dark, disc-shaped objects are positioned along this vertical structure, appearing to be part of it or orbiting it.
