Catalogue of the Edward C. Atwater Collection of American Popular Medicine and Health Reform Christopher Hoolihan,2001
This is a catalogue of the Edward C Atwater Collection of rare books dealing with popular medicine in early America which is housed at the University of Rochester Medical School library The books described in the catalogue were written by physicians and other professionals to provide information for the non medical audience The books taught human anatomy hygiene temperance and diet how to maintain health and how to cope with illness especially when no professional help was available The books promoted a healthy lifestyle for the readers giving guidance on everything from physical fitness and recreation to the special health needs of women The collection consists of works dealing with reproduction from birth control to delivering and caring for a baby venereal disease home nursing epidemics and the need for public sex education The Companion to American Food and Drink Andrew F. Smith,2007-05 Offering a panoramic view of the history and culture of food and drink in America with fascinating entries on everything from the smell of asparagus to the history of White Castle and the origin of Bloody Marys to jambalaya the Oxford Companion to American Food and Drink provides a concise authoritative and exuberant look at this modern American obsession Ideal for the food scholar and food enthusiast alike it is equally appetizing for anyone fascinated by Americana capturing our culture and history through what we love most food Building on the highly praised and deliciously browseable two volume compendium the Oxford Encyclopedia of Food and Drink in America this new work serves up everything you could ever want to know about American consumables and their impact on popular culture and the culinary world Within its pages for example we learn that Lifesavers candy owes its success to the canny marketing idea of placing the original flavor mint next to cash registers at bars Patrons who bought them to mask the smell of alcohol on their breath before heading home soon found they were just as tasty sober and the company began producing other flavors Edited by Andrew Smith a writer and lecturer on culinary history the Companion serves up more than just trivia however including hundreds of entries on fast food celebrity chefs fish sandwiches regional and ethnic cuisine food science and historical food traditions It also dispels a few commonly held myths Veganism isn't simply the practice of a few hippies but is in fact wide spread among elite athletic circles Many of the top competitors in the Ironman and Ultramarathon events go even further avoiding all animal products by following a strictly vegan diet Anyone hungering to know what our nation has been cooking and eating for the last three centuries should own the Oxford
