Law and Mental Health Professionals Margaret Charlton, Terry Fowler, Mark J. Ivandick, 2006 The Law and Mental Health Professionals series is designed to provide a resource for both mental health professionals and attorneys regarding mental health law in each state The series presents the laws addressing many areas pertinent to mental health professionals Some of the issues discussed include setting up a private practice working with health care provider organizations understanding the duty to warn and understanding the duty to report abuse and neglect of children and adults The Law and Mental Health Professionals series is a concise and easy to understand resource outlining the obligations and responsibilities of mental health professionals according to the law in any given state It is a part of the Law and Mental Health Professionals series

The Toughest Gun Control Law in the Nation James B. Jacobs, Zoe Fuhr, 2019-11-05 A comprehensive assessment of real gun reform legislation with recommendations for better design implementation and enforcement A month after the Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting New York State passed with record speed the first and most comprehensive state post Sandy Hook gun control law In The Toughest Gun Control Law in the Nation James B Jacobs and Zoe Fuhr ask whether the 2013 SAFE Act hailed by Governor Andrew Cuomo as the nation's toughest gun control law has lived up to its promise Jacobs and Fuhr illuminate the gap between gun control on the books and gun control in action They argue that to be effective gun controls must be capable of implementation and enforcement This requires realistic design administrative and enforcement capacity and commitment and ongoing political and fiscal support They show that while the SAFE Act was good symbolic politics most of its provisions were not effectively implemented or if implemented not enforced Gun control in a society awash with guns poses an immense regulatory challenge The Toughest Gun Control Law in the Nation takes a tough minded look at the technological administrative fiscal and local political impediments to effectively keeping guns out of the hands of dangerous persons and eliminating some types of guns altogether

Coercive Care Bernadette Mcsherry, Ian Freckelton, 2013-06-26 There has been much debate about mental health law reform and mental capacity legislation in recent years with the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities also having a major impact on thinking about the issue This edited volume explores the concept of coercive care in relation to individuals such as those with severe mental illnesses those with intellectual and cognitive disabilities and those with substance use problems With a focus on choice and capacity the book explores the impact of and challenges posed by the provision of care in an involuntary environment The contributors to the book look at mental health capacity and vulnerable adults care as well as the law related to those areas The book is split into four parts which cover human rights and coercive care legal capacity and coercive care the legal coordination of coercive care and coercive care and individuals with cognitive impairments The book covers new ground by exploring issues arising from the coercion of persons with various disabilities and vulnerabilities helping to illustrate how the capacity to provide consent to treatment and care is impaired by reason of their condition
