Crossing Over Harold M. Foster, 2013-09-05. This text for secondary preservice and in-service English language arts teachers offers a rationale for meaning-centered English language arts teaching and practical strategies for application. Its goal is to provide readers with an understanding of the issues involved in English teaching and specific examples of how to apply this understanding to classrooms. Teaching strategies are presented through a series of stories depicting teachers from a variety of settings practicing their craft with secondary students. Features: A solid introduction and interesting personal narratives introduce the issues and ideas involved in English language arts teaching. Case studies based on actual teachers and students realistically illustrate methods that can be used in secondary English classes. Lessons are described in sufficient detail to be converted to teaching models. Multicultural emphasis prepares teachers for the contemporary classroom. Chapters and sections incorporate the new literacies of TV, film, and computers in the English language arts class. Pedagogical aids include end-of-chapter questions and activities, reproducible charts and worksheets, an updated listing of young adult novels, and annotated recommended readings. An appendix on writing a personal narrative helps students develop as writers. New in the Second Edition: Updates. All chapters' bibliographies and the references are thoroughly updated to reflect changes since the first
