The Anthropology of Religion, Magic, and Witchcraft -- Pearson eText Rebecca L Stein, Philip Stein, 2015-08-07

This book emphasizes the major concepts of both anthropology and the anthropology of religion and examines religious expression from a cross cultural perspective while incorporating key theoretical concepts It is aimed at students encountering anthropology for the first time Material Approaches to Roman Magic Adam Parker, Stuart

McKie, 2018-04-30 This second volume in the new TRAC Themes in Roman Archaeology series seeks to push the research agendas of materiality and lived experience further into the study of Roman magic a field that has until recently lacked object focused analysis Building on the pioneering studies in Boschung and Bremmer s 2015 Materiality of Magic the editors of the present volume have collected contributions that showcase the value of richly detailed context specific explorations of the magical practices of the Roman world By concentrating primarily on the Imperial period and the western provinces the various contributions demonstrate very clearly the exceptional range of influences and possibilities open to individuals who sought to use magical rituals to affect their lives in these specific contexts something that would have been largely impossible in earlier periods of antiquity Contributions are presented from a range of museum professionals commercial archaeologists university academics and postgraduate students making a compelling case for strengthening lines of communication between these related areas of expertise The Anthropology of Religion, Magic, and Witchcraft

Witchcraft Accusations and Persecutions as a Mechanism for the Marginalisation of Women Samantha

Spence,2017-08-21 This book draws on feminist commentary from the disciplines of anthropology history law politics and sociology in order to deal with the phenomenon of modern day witchcraft It focuses on the re emergence of witchcraft beliefs in contemporary society suggesting that witchcraft accusations and persecution are being used as a marginalisation mechanism of women The re emergence of witchcraft beliefs in contemporary society and the prevalence of the violence associated with such beliefs has received little attention within academic literature yet witchcraft related violence against women is progressively becoming one of the most pervasive forms of violence facing women today This book addresses this gap in the literature discussing the return of witchcraft beliefs to contemporary society whilst assessing the effectiveness of international human rights law in protecting women from witchcraft accusations and persecution American draws together more than thirty contributions from multiple disciplines and fields of research and practice to discuss different ways of engaging with and responding to migration and displacement The volume combines critical reflections on the complexities of conceptualizing processes and experiences of forced migration with detailed analyses of these experiences in contemporary and historical settings from around the world Through interdisciplinary approaches and methodologies including participatory research poetic and spatial interventions ethnography theatre discourse analysis and visual methods the volume documents the complexities of refugees and migrants journeys This includes a particular focus on how people inhabit and negotiate everyday life in cities towns camps and informal settlements across the Middle East and North Africa Southern and Eastern Africa and Europe Identify Yourself Lora Starling,2017-07-11 From the clothes we wear to the cars we drive we design our lives every minute of every day Doing this consciously lets us create the life we desire Successful brands know what they want and they know how to get it They design the future they want and create the process to reach it At the heart of this process lies the logo Without it we would not recognise the brand and we could not display our allegiance to it The logo identifies and calls us to the brand dream Our ancient ancestors used the same elements of colours and symbols to draw their visions on cave walls and early languages were considered sacred This time proven tool has been honed by modern designers and is available to us all A logo effectively holds the imprint of a business and conveniently straddles the world of our imagination and of our solid world of manifestation Like visual ambassadors logos deliver our dreams to the world so they might become reality This book shows you how Museums, Societies and the Creation of Value Howard Morphy, Robyn McKenzie, 2021-12-30 Museums Societies and the Creation of Value focuses on the ways in which museums and the use of their collections have contributed to and continue to be engaged with value creation processes Including chapters from many of the leading figures in museum anthropology as well as from outstanding early career researchers this volume presents a diverse range of international case studies that bridge the gap between theory and practice It demonstrates that ethnographic collections and the museums that hold and curate them have played a central role in the value creation processes that have changed attitudes to cultural differences The essays engage richly with many of the important issues of contemporary museum discourse and practice They show how collections exist at the ever changing point of articulation between the source communities and the people and cultures of the museum and challenge presentist critiques of museums that position them as locked into the time that they emerged Museums Societies and the Creation of Value provides examples of the productive outcomes of collaborative work and relationships showing how they can be mutually beneficial The book will be of great interest to researchers and students engaged in the study of museums and heritage anthropology culture Indigenous peoples postcolonialism history and sociology It will also be of interest to museum professionals

Religious Beliefs and Knowledge Systems in Africa Toyin Falola, Nicole Griffin, 2021-09-21 Key to African studies is understanding the knowledge systems of the continent and her diaspora The representation and understanding of Africa are dependent on the observer's definition of knowledge Afrocentric knowledge is comprised of a collection of political religious and indigenous belief systems Religious Beliefs and Knowledge Systems in Africa begins with deconstructing the Western philosophy of knowledge before defining and exploring the epistemic disciplines of Africa It transcends postcolonial critique through an Afrocentric approach to knowledge divided into three key themes The first of these is the African worldview exploring knowledge through eldership witchcraft and divination This is followed up by kingship ideology and epistemologies exploring discussing how politics religion and belief shape African society Finally the world religion chapter examines Christianity Islam and Pentecostalism in their impact on African ways of knowing This book calls to action new fields of study in universities encouraging a greater understanding of African ways of knowing through more nuanced disciplines
