Philosophy and Fiction Schuy R. Weishaar, 2022-11-18 Fiction lies in order to tell the truth and seeks reality through shadows Philosophy attempts to dispel false realities it pursues clear understanding of things as they are While the relation of philosophy and fiction is perhaps paradoxical they implicate one another's picture of human experience This book uses fiction to help readers process philosophical themes and the philosophical reflection in turn helps clarify the fiction The study moves through roughly a hundred years of modern fiction from Washington Irving's The Devil and Tom Walker 1824 through James M Cain's Double Indemnity 1936 Several classic works of literary fiction are examined a few largely forgotten stories and several popular novels Reading fiction through the lens of philosophy helps readers perceive the complexity and richness of fiction reinvigorating the pursuit of wisdom that lies just beneath the surface of the words on the page

Radical Planes? 9/11 and Patterns of Continuity, 2016-09-07 Radical Planes 9 11 and Patterns of Continuity edited by Dunja M Mohr and Birgit D we explores the intersections between narrative disruption and continuity in post 9 11 narratives from an interdisciplinary transnational perspective foregrounding the transatlantic cultural memory of 9 11 Contesting the earlier notion of a cataclysm that has changed everything and critically reflecting on American exceptionalism the collection offers an inquiry into what has gone unchanged in terms of pre 9 11 post 9 11 and post post 9 11 issues and what silences persist How do literature and performative and visual arts negotiate this precarious balance of a pervasive discourse of change and emerging patterns of political ideological and cultural continuity 'Post'-9/11 South Asian Diasporic Fiction P. Liao,2012-12-07 While much of the critical discussion about the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction has centred on the trauma of 9 11 and on novels by EuroAmerican writers this book draws attention to the diversity of what might be meant by post 9 11 by exploring the themes of uncanny terror through a close reading of four post 9 11 South Asian diasporic fictions The Sentimental Novel in the Eighteenth Century Albert J. Rivero,2019-03-21 Provides twenty first century readers with a new comprehensive and suggestive account of the sentimental novel in the eighteenth century Reading Mennonite Writing Robert Zacharias,2022-05-17 Mennonite literature has long been viewed as an expression of community identity However scholars in Mennonite literary studies have urged a reconsideration of the field s past and a reconceptualization of its future This is exactly what Reading Mennonite Writing does Drawing on the transnational turn in literary studies Robert Zacharias positions Mennonite literature in North America as a mode of circulation and reading rather than an expression of a distinct community He tests this reframing with a series of methodological experiments that open new avenues of critical engagement with the field s unique configuration of faith based intercultural difference These include cross sectional readings in nonnarrative literary history archival readings of transatlantic life writing Canadian rewritings of Mexican film s deployment of Mennonite theology as fantasy an examination of the fetishistic structure of ethnicity as a thing that has enabled Mennonite identity to function in a post identity age and finally a tentative reinvestment in ideals of Mennonite community via the surprising routes of queerness and speculative fiction In so doing Zacharias reads Mennonite writing in North America as a useful case study in the shifting position of minor literatures in the wake of the transnational turn Theoretically sophisticated this study of minor transnationalism will appeal to specialists in Mennonite literature and to scholars working in the broader field of transnational literary studies The quiet contemporary American novel Rachel Sykes,2017-12-01 This book explores the concept of quiet an aesthetic of narrative driven by reflective principles and argues for the term s application to the study of contemporary American fiction In doing so it makes two critical interventions Firstly it maps the neglected history of quiet fictions arguing that from Hester Prynne to Clarissa Dalloway from Bartleby to William Stoner the Western tradition is filled with quiet characters Secondly it asks what it means for a novel to be quiet and how we might read for quiet in an American literary tradition that critics so often describe as noisy Examining recent works by Marilynne Robinson Teju Cole and Ben Lerner among others the book argues that quiet can be a multi faceted state of existence one that is communicative and expressive in as many ways as noise but filled with potential for radical discourse by its marginalisation as a mode of expression

A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works, 11th Edition

John F. Evans, 2025-01-21 A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works 11th Edition by John F Evans summarizes and briefly analyzes all recent and many older commentaries on each book of the Bible giving insightful comments on the approach of each commentary and its usefulness for biblical interpretation The easy to use book provides analysis in canonical order and includes helpful appendices for compiling a personal research library A Guide to Biblical Commentaries and Reference Works 11th Edition is a key reference tool for any student of the Bible pastors laity and scholars alike The Life of Texts Kiene Brillenburg Wurth, Ann Rigney, 2019-11-08 This innovative introduction to literary studies takes the life of texts as its overarching frame It provides a conceptual and methodological toolbox for analysing novels poems and all sorts of other texts as they circulate in oral print and digital form It shows how texts inspire each other and how stories migrate across media It explains why literature has been interpreted in different ways across time Finally it asks why some texts fascinate people so much that they are reproduced and passed on to others in the form of new editions in adaptations to film and theatre and last but not least in the ways we look at the world and act out our lives The Life of Texts is designed around particular issues rather than the history of the discipline as such Each chapter concentrates on a different aspect of the life of texts and introduces the key debates and concepts relevant to its study The issues discussed range from aesthetics and narrative to intertextuality and intermediality from reading practices to hermeneutics and semiotics popular culture to literary canonisation postcolonial criticism to cultural memory Key concepts and schools in the field have been highlighted in the text and then collected in a glossary for ease of reference All chapters are richly illustrated with examples from different language areas

Post-9/11 Historical Fiction and Alternate History Fiction

Pei-chen Liao, 2020-09-19 Drawing on theories of historiography memory and diaspora as well as from existing genre studies this book explores why contemporary writers are so fascinated with history Pei chen Liao considers how fiction contributes to the making and remaking of the transnational history of the U S by thinking beyond and before 9 11 investigating how the dynamics of memory as well as the emergent present influences readers reception of historical fiction and alternate history fiction and their interpretation of the past Set against the historical backdrop of WWII the Vietnam War and the War on Terror the novels under discussion tell Jewish Japanese white American African Muslim and Native Americans stories of trauma and survival As a means to transmit memories of past events these novels demonstrate how multidirectional memory can be not only collective but connective as exemplified by the echoes that post 9 11 readers hear between different histories of violence that the novels chronicle as well as between the past and the present

Twenty-First Century Fictions of Terrorism

Arin Keeble, 2024-05-31 Examining novels by celebrated authors some neglected and some brand new texts Arin Keeble offers a detailed analysis of the ways novels from around the world have represented terrorism in the early twenty first century Over five chapters he uncovers a movement away from event based narratives toward depictions of terrorism as a violent symptom or feature of twenty first century world systems and neoliberalism Beginning with the early literary response to 9 11 and the 9 11 novel genre the book moves through more recent depictions of the endless war on terror state terror white nationalist terror and historical narratives of terror that resonate in the current political climate In doing so it examines the changing ways literature has sought to make sense of both the reasons why terrorism occurs and the effects it has on victims survivors and international and intercultural relations

The American Popular Novel After World War II David Willbern, 2013-04-05 Through the perspectives of selected best selling novels from the end of World War II to the end of the 20th century including The Catcher in the Rye To Kill a Mockingbird The Godfather Jaws Beloved The Silence of the Lambs and Jurassic Park this book examines the crucial issues the U S was experiencing during those decades These novels represent the voices of popular conversations as Americans considered issues of family class racism and sexism feminism economic ambition sexual violence war law religion and science Through the windows of fiction the book surveys the Cold War and anti communism the prefeminist era of the 1950s and the sexual revolution of the 1970s forms of corporate power in the 1960s and 1980s the traumatic legacies of slavery and Vietnam the American fascination with lawyers cops and criminals alternate styles of romance in the era of late capitalism our abiding distrust of science and our steadfast wonder about the Great Mysteries
