Animals, Gods and Humans Ingvild Saelid Gilhus, 2006-09-27 Consulting a wide range of key texts and source material Animals Gods and Humans covers 800 years and provides a detailed analysis of early Christian attitudes to and the position of animals in Greek and Roman life and thought Both the pagan and Christian conceptions of animals are rich and multilayered and Ingvild Saelid Gilhus expertly examines the dominant themes and developments in the conception of animals Including study of biographies of figures such as Apollonius of Tyana natural history the New Testament via Gnostic texts the church fathers and from pagan and Christian criticism of animal sacrifice to the acts of martyrs the source material and detailed analysis included in this volume make it a veritable feast of information for all classicists Animals, Rights, and

Reason in Plutarch and Modern Ethics Stephen Thomas Newmyer, 2006 This volume is groundbreaking in examining Plutarch's views not only in the context of ancient philosophical and ethical thought but also in its generally overlooked place in the history of speculation on human animal relations

Medieval Pets Kathleen Walker-Meikle, 2012 Animals in the middle ages have often been discussed but usually only as a source of food as beasts of burden or as aids for hunters This book takes a completely different angle showing that they were also beloved domestic companions to their human owners It offers a full survey of pets and pet keeping how they were acquired kept fed exercised and displayed it looks at the problems pets could cause and finally how they were mourned It also examines the representation of pets and their owners in art and literature the many charming illustrations offer further evidence for the bonds between humans and their pets then as now Dr Kathleen Walker Meikle is a Wellcome Trust Fellow at the University of York working on animals and medieval medicine

Subjugated Animals Nathaniel Wolloch, 2017-07-12 This book is a study of attitudes toward animals in early modern Western culture Emphasizing the influence of anthropocentrism on attitudes toward animals historian Nathaniel Wolloch traces the various ways in which animals were viewed from predominantly anti animal thinking to increasingly pro animal sentiments and viewpoints Wolloch devotes a chapter each to six major themes early modern philosophical perspectives on animals till the end of the seventeenth century pro animal opinions in the eighteenth century the connection between attitudes toward animals and the early modern debate about the existence of extraterrestrial life scientific modes of discussing animals the role of animals in early modern anthropomorphic literature and depictions of animals in seventeenth century Dutch and Flemish painting He concludes his broad interdisciplinary study by linking these historical trends to the modern discussion of animal rights and ecological issues

Ancient Greece and Rome Keith Hopwood, 1995 Sir Thomas Fairfax not Oliver Cromwell was creator and commander of Parliament's New Model Army from 1645 to 1650 Although Fairfax emerged as England's most successful commander of the 1640s this book challenges the orthodoxy that he was purely a military figure showing how he was not apolitical or disinterested in politics The book combines narrative and thematic approaches to explore the wider issues of popular allegiance puritan religion concepts of honour image reputation memory gender literature and Fairfax's relationship with Cromwell Black Tom delivers a groundbreaking examination of the transformative experience of the English revolution from the viewpoint of one of its leading yet most neglected participants It is the first modern academic study of Fairfax making it essential reading for university students as well as historians of the seventeenth century Its accessible style will appeal to a wider audience of those interested in the civil wars and interregnum more generally

The Routledge International Handbook of Human-Animal Interactions and Anthrozoology Aubrey H. Fine, Megan K. Mueller, Zenithson Y. Ng, Alan M. Beck, Jose M. Peralta, 2023-09-26 This diverse global and interdisciplinary volume explores the existing research practice and ethical issues pertinent to the field of human animal interactions HAIs interventions and anthrozoology focusing on the perceived physical and mental health benefits to humans and the challenges derived from these relationships The book begins by exploring the basic theoretical principles of anthrozoology and HAI such as the evolution and history of the field the importance of language the economic costs and current perspectives to physical and mental wellbeing the origins of domestication of animals anthropomorphism and how animals fit into human societies Chapters then move onto practice covering topics such as how animals help childhood and adulthood development pet ownership disability the roles of pets for people with psychiatric disorders the links between animal and domestic abuse and then more widely into the therapeutic roles of animals animal assisted therapies interactions outside the home working animals animals in popular culture and animals in research for leisure and food Including chapters on a wide range of animals from domesticated pets to wildlife this collection examines the benefits yet also reveals the complexity and often dark side of human animal relations Interweaving accessible commentaries with revealing chapters throughout the text this collection would be of great interest to students and practitioners in the fields of mental health psychology veterinary medicine zoology biology social work history and sociology
