Race and Ethnic Relations on Campus Eric J. Bailey, 2018-09-07 Can college students confront race relations issues directly and make positive changes Yes they can This book provides a fresh practical approach to addressing these issues individually and collectively to ignite a positive revolution in race and ethnic relations As racial and ethnic incidents continue to occur at college campuses across the nation an esteemed African American professor who teaches in the heart of a region that has seen some of the most volatile racial incidents in American history breaks the uneasy silence to respond to growing concerns from undergraduate students In Race and Ethnic Relations on Campus Understanding Empowerment and Solutions for College Students Eric J

Bailey presents a new approach to addressing and better understanding the major controversial issues associated with race and ethnic relations for today's college students. This book confronts commonplace race relations issues directly and sets forth a completely different way of addressing these problems that empowers today's college students to take charge and start to effect change to do something about racially charged conflict rather than to simply talk about it. The chapters describe how race and ethnic relations issues typically arise on college campuses, share insight into how national incidents affect college students' reactions to incidents on their own campus, and identify the negative consequences of poor race relations as well as describe the positive effects of good race relations.

Wanderer zwischen den Kulturen David Johannes Berchem, 2014-03-15. Migranten gehören zu den wohl einflussreichsten Agenten der Globalisierung von unten. Diese auf einer ethnographischen Feldforschung basierende kulturanthropologische Mikrostudie zur Ethnizität deutscher Migranten in Sydney untersucht nicht nur bewegte Lebensformen vor einem deutsch-australischen Gesellschaftshorizont, sondern analysiert auch die Verlaufsmuster von Integration, Akkulturation und Differenzgenerierung. Über einen erfahrungsnahen methodischen Zugang zeichnet das Buch ein kaleidoskopisches Bild vom deutschen Alltag am buchstäblich anderen Ende der Welt.

Ebook: Sociology: A Brief Introduction Schaefer, 2014-10-16. Ebook Sociology: A Brief Introduction. Transcending Architecture Julio Bermudez, 2015. Please fill in marketing copy. Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education Kgari-Masondo, Maserole Christina, 2025-03-28. Literature indicates that sociolinguists and educationists often claim multilingual practice and Africanizing and Indigenizing education will jeopardize national unity and social cohesion. Such claims delay the implementation of decolonization policies and the transformation of the curriculum under false assumptions. However, research reveals many Indigenous students struggle with higher educational content which is often presented through languages that are unfamiliar to them. This implies that there is a need to uncover resources that can assist in necessitating the implementation of Indigenous education globally and that all multilingual strategies in education must be based on quality mother tongue illustrative content as its foundation. As a result, further research on the subject is necessary to enhance teaching strategies that reach all Indigenous students. Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education illustrates the need for the implementation of a decolonized teaching and learning curriculum with integrated resources as models. It explores how to improve Indigenous knowledge content and teaching methods. Covering topics such as cultural identity, African research methodology, and Indigenous media, this book is an excellent resource for teachers, policymakers, school administrators, researchers, scholars, academicians, and more.

Rediasporization Gillian Richards-Greaves, 2020-11-24. Rediasporization. African Guyanese. Kweh Kweh examines how African Guyanese in New York City participate in the Come to My Kwe Kwe ritual to facilitate rediasporization, that is, the creation of a newer diaspora from an existing one. Since the fall of 2005, African Guyanese in New York City have celebrated Come to My Kwe Kwe, more recently called Kwe Kwe Night, on the Friday evening before Labor Day. Come to My Kwe Kwe is a reenactment of a uniquely African Guyanese pre wedding ritual called kweh kweh and sometimes referred to as karkalay mayan kweh keh and pele A typical traditional wedding based kweh kweh has approximately ten ritual segments which include the pouring of libation to welcome or appease the ancestors a procession from the groom s residence to the bride s residence or central kweh kweh venue the hiding of the bride and the negotiation of bride price Each ritual segment is executed with music and dance which allow for commentary on conjugal matters such as sex domestication submissiveness and hard work Come to My Kwe Kwe replicates the overarching segments of the traditional kweh kweh but a couple male and female from the audience acts as the bride and groom and props simulate the boundaries of the traditional performance space such as the gate and the bride s home This book draws on more than a decade of ethnographic research data and demonstrates how Come to My Kwe Kwe allows African Guyanese Americans to negotiate complex overlapping identities in their new homeland by combining elements from the past and present and reinterpreting them to facilitate rediasporization and ensure group survival
