Management of Tourism and Hospitality Services Rebecca Dei Mensah, Ishmael Mensah, 2013-09-30
What standards should tourism and hospitality practitioners adhere to? What goes into designing and delivering quality tourism and hospitality services? What management functions are necessary for the maintenance of high service standards? What critical issues confront the tourism industry today? The answers to these questions have been adequately addressed by this book, which is indispensable to both students and practitioners of hospitality and tourism. This book provides insights into different segments of the tourism and hospitality industry, management functions, design, and delivery of tourism and hospitality services, as well as critical issues such as service quality and technological applications.

Food and Wine Pairing Robert J. Harrington, 2007-03-05
Food and Wine Pairing: A Sensory Experience provides a series of discussion and exercises ranging from identifying basic wine characteristics, including visual, aroma, taste, acid, sweetness, oak, tannin, body, etc., to palate mapping, acid, sweet, sour, bitter, and tannin, basic food characteristics, and anchors of each: sweet, sour, bitter, saltiness, fattiness, body, etc. It presents how these characteristics contrast and complement each other By helping culinary professionals develop the skills necessary to identifying the key elements in food or wine that will directly impact its matching based on contrast or similarities they will then be able to predict excellent food and wine pairings     Wine & Spirit ,2008     Catalog Florida International University,1992     Lodging ,2000-03
