Confronting the Widening Gyres of the Empire Chinmay Routray, 2024-09-21 In the 19th century European colonialism imposed a hegemonic grip over Africa profoundly disrupting indigenous societies Chinua Achebe a seminal figure in postcolonial literature embarked on an intentional mission to decolonize the literary canon through his writings particularly by restoring Igbo culture as a means to counteract colonial legacies This book offers a critical exploration of Achebe's Things Fall Apart analysing how colonialism restructures power dynamics within Igbo society and how Achebe as a postcolonial writer reappropriates this power By employing an interdisciplinary approach this book analyses the pre colonial power configurations in Igbo society It then advances a postcolonial analysis of the colonial usurpation of power from the indigenous Igbo centre before culminating in an examination of Achebe's linguistic strategies as a tool for decolonization aimed at reappropriating power back to the indigenous Igbo centre This book is an indispensable resource for scholars and researchers of postcolonial literature and is aimed at providing an in depth understanding of colonial disruption to indigenous societies while simultaneously emphasizing the pivotal role of literature and language in restoring cultural agency to the native context Africa: a Study Guide to Better Understanding Charles A. Geoffrion,1970 African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay,2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom Multiculturalism & Hybridity in African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting,2000 This volume of essays covers all phases and geographical areas of African literature including lesser known areas such as oral literature literature written in African languages and Lusophone literature Also included are articles on Caribbean literature developments in South African theatre and two articles on African film Several writers receive special attention Chinua Achebe Maryse Conde Wole Soyinka Niyi Osundare Ngugi wa Thiong o and Hampate Ba Also included are the key note addresses by Achebe Conde and Osundare MAWA Review ,1999 The New Violent Cartography Samson Opondo,Michael Shapiro,2012-06-25 This edited volume seeks to propose and examine different though related critical responses to modern cultures of war among other cultural practices of statecraft Taken together these essays present a space of creative engagement with the political and draw on a broad range of cultural contexts and genres of expressions to provoke the thinking that exceeds the conventional stories and practices of international relations In contrast to a macropolitical focus on state policy and inter state hostilities the contributors to this volume treat the micropolitics of violence and dissensus that occur below besides and against the level and gaze that comprehends official map making policy making and implementation practices At a minimum the counter narratives presented in these essays disturb the functions identities and positions assigned by the nation state thereby multiplying relations between bodies the worlds where they live and the ways in which they are equipped for fitting in them Contributions deploy feature films literature photography architecture to think the political in ways that offer glimpses of realities that are fugitive within existing perspectives Bringing together a wide range of theorists from a host of geographical cultural and theoretical contexts this work explores the different ways in which an aesthetic treatment of world politics can contribute to an ethics of encounter predicated on minimal violence in encounters with people with different practices of identity This work provides a significant contribution to the field of international theory encouraging us to rethink politics and ethics in the world today

Existence and Heritage Tsenay Serequeberhan,2015-10-07 Explores overlapping concerns and themes in African a and continental philosophy In Existence and Heritage Tsenay Serequeberhan examines what the European philosophical tradition has to offer when encountered from the outsider perspective of postcolonial African thought He reads Kant in the context of contemporary international relations finds in Gadamer s work a way of conceiving relations among differing traditions and explores Heidegger s analysis of existence as it converges with Marx s critique of alienation In the confluence of these different assessments Serequeberhan articulates both a need and example of responding to Fanon's call for a new kind of thinking in philosophy He demonstrates both how continental philosophy can be a useful resource for theorizing Africa's postcolonial condition and how postcolonial thought and African philosophy can provide a new way of approaching and understanding the Western tradition Transfer Thinking in Translation Studies Maud Gonne, Klaartje Merrigan, Reine Meylaerts, Heleen van Gerwen, 2020-11-16 The concept of transfer covers the most diverse phenomena of circulation transformation and reinterpretation of cultural goods across space and time and are among the driving forces in opening up the field of translation studies Transfer processes cross linguistic and cultural boundaries and cannot be reduced to simple movements from a source to a target culture or text In a time of paradigm shifts this book aims to explore the potential and interdisciplinary power of transfer as a concept and an analytical tool to account for complex cultural dynamics The contributions in this book adopt various research angles literary studies imagology translation studies translator studies periodical studies postcolonialism to study an array of entangled transfer processes that apply to different objects and aspects ranging from literary texts legal texts news images and identities to ideologies power asymmetries titles and heterolingualisms By embracing a process oriented way of thinking all these contributions aim to open the black box of transfer in the widest sense Research Review, 2010 Along the Archival Grain Ann Laura Stoler, 2010-01-25 Along the Archival Grain offers a unique methodological and analytic opening to the affective registers of imperial governance and the political content of archival forms In a series of nuanced mediations on the nature of colonial documents from the nineteenth century Netherlands Indies Ann Laura Stoler identifies the social epistemologies that guided perception and practice revealing the problematic racial ontologies of that confused epistemic space Navigating familiar and extraordinary paths through the lettered lives of those who ruled she seizes on moments when common sense failed and prevailing categories no longer seemed to work She asks not what colonial agents knew but what happened when what they thought they knew they found they did not Rejecting the notion that archival labor be approached as an extractive enterprise Stoler sets her sights on archival production as a consequential act of governance as a field of force with violent effect and not least as a vivid space to do ethnography Annals of Borno, 1994 The African Imagination Abiola Irele, 2001 F Abiola Irele is an expert on the anglophone and francophone traditions in post colonial African literature This collection of his essays examines African literary traditions in the broad sense and places the work of individual authors in context Christianity and the African Counter-Discourse in Achebe and Beti Ali Yiğit, 2024-05-15 Christianity and the African Counter Discourse in Achebe and Beti Cultures in Dialogue Contest and Conflict intervenes in light of African literary products the history of Christianity in Africa in late 19th and early 20th centuries goes beyond the existing clichés about the operations of the European Christian missionaries whether Protestant or Catholic in Africa and opens alternative ways to read the chain of missionary native African and missionary European colonists relationships Christian missionaries did not come to Africa for their own interests

the Christianization of Africa European colonial projects the interests of Africans the establishment of European civilization in Africa but came for all Once there was a dialogue between the Christian missionaries and pagan Africans which was in time replaced by contest for superiority and finally by conflict Accordingly the countenance of the continent has changed forever

Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions

Literature from the Peripheries Anjum Khan, Shubhanku Kochar, 2022-12-19 Literature from the Peripheries Refrigerated Culture and Pluralism is a collection of chapters dealing with multiple minority cultures from all over the world The book examines the status of several less known cultures or cultural communities which exist in the peripheries of space and time In addition to this the arguments and the discourses running through chapters prove the need of cultural diversity and pluralism This well thought and critically written book is a clarion call for humanity to look over the shoulder and see the ghost of civilization receding farther away The book will interest the readers scholars practitioners and activists who like to explore several cultures and cultural conflicts

New Perspectives on African Childhood De-Valera NYM Botchway, Awo Sarpong, Charles Quist-Adade, 2019-09-05 What does it mean to be a child in Africa In the detached Western media narratives of penury wickedness and death have dominated portrayals of African childhood The hegemonic lens of the West has failed to take into account the intricacies of not only what it means to be an African child in local and culturally specific contexts but also African childhood in general Challenging colonial discourses this edited volume guides the reader through different comprehensions and perspectives of childhood in Africa Using a blend of theory empiricism and history the contributors to this volume offer studies from a range of fields including African literature Afro centric psychology and sociology Importantly in its eclectic geographical coverage of Africa this book unashamedly presents the good the bad and the ugly of African childhood The resilience creativity pains and triumphs of African childhood are skilfully woven together to present the myriad of lived experiences and aspirations of children from across Africa As an important contribution to African childhood studies

this book has the potential to be used by policymakers to shape sustain or change socio cultural economic and education systems that accommodate African childhood dynamics and experiences at different levels European and African Stereotypes in Twentieth-Century Fiction Sarah L.Milbury- Steen,1980-06-18
