Author Linda Wagner Martin, a highly acclaimed authority on all facets of modern American literature, covers major works of drama, poetry, fiction, non-fiction, memoirs, and popular genres such as science fiction and detective novels. Viewing works produced during this fertile literary period from a wide-ranging perspective, Wagner Martin considers literature in relation to such issues as the politics of civil rights, feminism, sexual preferences, and race and gender-based marketing. She also places a special emphasis on works produced during the twenty-first century and writings influenced by recent historic events such as the 9/11 terrorist attacks, Hurricane Katrina, and the global financial crisis. With its careful balance of scholarly precision and accessibility, A History of American Literature 1950 to the Present provides readers of all levels with rich and revealing insights into the diversity of literary forms and influences that characterize postmodern America. A monumental distillation of an enormous range of material, Wagner Martin's rich book should be required reading for anyone grappling with making sense of the prolific broad spectrum and diverse writing in the US since 1950. Thadious M. Davis, University of Pennsylvania.
