Sad Planets Dominic Pettman,Eugene Thacker,2024-03-28 Everything is sad wrote the Ancient poets But is this sadness merely a human experience projected onto the world or is there a gloom attributable to the world itself Could the universe be forever weeping the tears of things In this series of meditations Dominic Pettman and Eugene Thacker explore some of the key negative affects both eternal and emergent associated with climate change environmental destruction and cosmic solitude In so doing they unearth something so obvious that it has gone largely unnoticed the question of how we should feel about climate change Between the information gathered by planetary sensors and the simple act of breathing the air new unsettling moods are produced for which we currently lack an adequate language Should we feel grief over the loss of our planet Or is the strange feeling of witnessing mass extinction an indicator that the planet was never ours to begin with Sad Planets explores this relationship between our all too human melancholia and a more impersonal sorrow nestled in the heart of the cosmic elements Spanning a wide range of topics from the history of cosmology to the existential threat of climate change this book is a reckoning with the limits of human existence and comprehension As Pettman and Thacker observe never before have we known so much about the planet and the cosmos and yet never before have we felt so estranged from that same planet to say nothing of the stars beyond Edinburgh Companion to Queer Reading Declan Kavanagh,Jeremy Chow,2024-11-30 What does it mean to read queerly The Edinburgh Companion to Queer Reading upholds intersectional thinking to recognise the wide currency and appeal of queer studies for a new generation of scholars activists students and interested allies Its four interconnecting parts transing queer readings reading queer ecologies queer reading as practice and reading queer futures speak to and help to critique and foreground expansive queer epistemologies Contributors evocatively explore the relationships between queerness and genders embodiments race narrative methodology history literature media and art Bringing together emerging and established queer theorists this timely collection demonstrates how germane queer readings theories and companions are to the livelihood of interdisciplinary research and humanistic inquiry in the 2020s The Summer House Philip Teir,2018-07-12 The light greenery of the early summer is trembling around Erik and Julia as they shove their children into the car and start the drive towards the house by the sea on the west coast of Finland where they will spend the summer From the outside they are a happy young family looking forward to a long holiday together But look under the surface and their happiness shows signs of not lasting the summer On the eve of the holiday Erik lost his job but hasn't yet told the family And the arrival of Julia's childhood friend Marika along with her charismatic husband Chris the leader of a group of environmental activists that have given up hope for planet Earth and are returning to a primitive lifestyle deepens the hairline cracks that had so far remained invisible Around these people over the course of one summer Philip Teir weaves a finely tuned story about life choices and lies about childhood and adulthood How do we live if we know that the world is about to end The Man Who Invented Conservatism Daniel J. Flynn,2025-08-19 Frank Meyer devised the blueprint for American conservatism fusionism championed by Barry Goldwater Ronald Reagan and so many to this day Yet long before and far away Communists in London chanted Free Frank Meyer to block the deportation of a comrade who was their cause célèbre Those fervent Marxists could never have predicted that their hero would one day provide the intellectual energy necessary to propel conservatives to political power The Man Who Invented Conservatism unveils one of the twentieth century's great untold stories a Communist turned conservative an antiwar activist turned soldier and a free love enthusiast turned family man whose big idea captured the American Right This intellectual migration coincided with a clandestine affair inside 10 Downing Street service as a lieutenant to the man who later constructed the Berlin Wall and neighborly chats with the pop star and poet celebrity next door Present at the creation of National Review Meyer helped launch Joan Didion's writing career From H G Wells to Henry Kissinger to Milton Friedman he rubbed shoulders with everyone who mattered Having discovered Meyer s previously unexamined correspondence in an old soda warehouse Daniel J Flynn documents this saga in The Man Who Invented Conservatism exposing the rivalries jealousies friendships and fights that shaped the movement and what it means to be a conservative today
