Anne Sexton A Biography Diane Wood Middlebrook:

Anne Sexton Diane Wood Middlebrook, 1991 Anne Sexton began writing poetry at the age of twenty nine to keep from killing herself She held on to language for dear life and somehow in spite of alcoholism and the mental illness that ultimately led her to suicide managed to create a body of work that won a Pulitzer Prize and that still sings to thousands of readers This exemplary biography which was nominated for the National Book Award provoked controversy for its revelations of infidelity and incest and its use of tapes from Sexton s psychiatric sessions It reconciles the many Anne Sextons the 1950s housewife the abused child who became an abusive mother the seductress the suicide who carried kill me pills in her handbag the way other women carry lipstick and the poet who transmuted confession into lasting art Anne Sexton Paula M.

Salvio, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Critics Choice Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association A Pulitzer Prize winning poet who confessed the unrelenting anguish of addiction and depression Anne Sexton 1928 1974 was also a dedicated teacher In this book Paula M Salvio opens up Sexton s classroom uncovering a teacher who willfully demonstrated that the personal could also be plural Looking at how Sexton framed and used the personal in teaching and learning Salvio considers the extent to which our histories both personal and social exert their influence on teaching In doing so she situates the teaching life of Anne Sexton at the center of some of the key problems and questions in feminist teaching navigating the appropriate distance between teacher and student the relationship between writer and poetic subject and the relationship between emotional life and knowledge Examining Sexton s pedagogy with its weird abundance of tactics and strategies Salvio argues that Sexton s use of the autobiographical I is as much a literary identity as a literal identity one that can speak with great force to educators who recognize its vital role in the humanities classroom Das letzte Geständnis

Life, Love and The Archers Wendy Cope,2014-11-06 Wendy Cope has long been one of the nation s best loved poets with her sharp eye for human foibles and wry sense of humour For the first time Life Love and the Archers brings together the best of her prose recollections reviews and essays from the light hearted to the serious taken from a lifetime of published and unpublished work and all with Cope s lightness of touch Here readers can meet the Enid Blyton obsessed schoolgirl the ambivalent daughter the amused teacher the sensitive journalist the cynical romantic and the sardonic television critic as well as touching on books and writers who have informed a lifetime of reading and writing Wendy Cope is a master of the one liner as well as the couplet the telling review as well as the sonnet and Life Love and the Archers gives us a wonderfully entertaining and unforgettable portrait of one of England s favourite writers

Biography: An Historiography Melanie Nolan,2023-04-03 Biography An Historiography examines how Western historians have used biography from the nineteenth century to the present considering the problems and challenges that historians have faced in their biographical practice systematically This volume analyses the strategies and methods that historians have used in response to seven major issues identified over time to do with evidence including but not limited to the problem of causation the problem of fact and fiction the problem of other minds the problem of significance or representativeness the problems of perspective both macro and micro and the problem of subjectivity and relative truth This volume will be essential for both postgraduates and historians studying biography The Known Citizen Sarah E.

Igo, 2020-03-10 A Washington Post Book of the Year Winner of the Merle Curti Award Winner of the Jacques Barzun Prize Winner of the Ralph Waldo Emerson Award A masterful study of privacy Sue Halpern New York Review of Books Masterful and timely A marathon trek from Victorian propriety to social media exhibitionism Utterly original Washington Post Every day we make decisions about what to share and when how much to expose and to whom Securing the boundary between one's private affairs and public identity has become an urgent task of modern life How did privacy come to loom so large in public consciousness Sarah Igo tracks the quest for privacy from the invention of the telegraph onward revealing enduring debates over how Americans would and should be known The Known Citizen is a penetrating historical investigation with powerful lessons for our own times when corporations government agencies and data miners are tracking our every move A mighty effort to tell the story of modern America as a story of anxieties about privacy Shows us that although we may feel that the threat to privacy today is unprecedented every generation has felt that way since the introduction of the postcard Louis Menand New Yorker Engaging and wide ranging Igo's analysis of state surveillance from the New Deal through Watergate is remarkably thorough and insightful The Nation L'épuisement du biographique? Vincent Broqua, Guillaume

Marche, 2010-10-12 Pourquoi penser le biographique N'est-il pas puis le siècle passé semble l'avoir vidé de son contenu et de sa substance et l'a réduit à un état d'affaiblissement presque complet dans le domaine des sciences sociales comme dans celui de la critique littéraire L'enjeu de cet ouvrage est d'affirmer que le biographique déborde la biographie et de considérer le biographique comme une condition du retour de la biographie au moyen de son dépasement Cet ouvrage rassemble des travaux abondants Why Love Matters Sue Gerhardt, 2014-10-24 Why Love Matters explains why loving relationships are essential to brain development in the early years and how these early interactions can have lasting consequences for future emotional and physical health This second edition follows on from the success of the first updating the scientific research covering recent findings in genetics and the mind-body connection and including a new chapter highlighting our growing understanding of the part also played by pregnancy in shaping a baby's future emotional and physical well-being The author focuses in particular on the wide-ranging effects of early stress on a baby or toddler's developing nervous system When things go wrong with relationships in early life the dependent child has to adapt what we now know is that his or her brain adapts too The brain's emotion and immune systems are particularly affected by early stress and can become less effective This makes the child more vulnerable to a range of later difficulties such as depression anti-social behaviour addictions or anorexia as well as physical illness

Writing, a Woman's Business Judy Simons, Kate Fullbrook, 1998 This study examines the problems that women writers encounter as they attempt to write themselves into a culture that in critical and commercial terms has traditionally been dominated by men

The Dedalus Book of Literary Suicides Gary Lachman, 2024-05-20 Lachman's goal to write a book on writers who had killed themselves or had tried to or had written about suicide at some length or depth would be immense To qualify the author requires the suicide to be in some way interesting Thus we have the philosopher Philipp Mainländer who killed himself because of the second law of thermodynamics Zeno who purportedly hanged himself after stubbing his toe on a turtle and Yukio Mishima's sensational and bloody hara kiri performance Suicides are arranged by type Existential suicides brought on by metaphysical issues emotionally rich Romantic suicides political suicides manic depressive mortal coil shuffling à la Sylvia Plath and the bizarre and often nonchalant suicides of many Surrealists Lachman focuses on little known or forgotten characters such as Polish avant garde figure Witkacy Thomas Chatterton the original tragic Romantic genius narcissistic publisher Harry Crosby and the tormented Austrian poet Georg Trakl The second part of Dead Letters is a selection of writings about suicide whose real value lies in Lachman's research and his knack of smoothly relating obscure biographical tidbits and philosophical ideas This work on a grim subject never becomes overly morbid and Lachman remains respectful of his troubled subjects Suicide is not recommended but this volume surely is a splendid summary of self destruction Mike Pursley in Fortean Times

Sex, Drugs and Creativity Dustin Kahoud, Danielle Knafo, 2018-06-19 In Sex Drugs and Creativity The Search for Magic in a Disenchanted World Kahoud and Knafo take a close look at omnipotent fantasies in three domains sex drugs and creativity They demonstrate how these fantasies emerge and how artists draw on them both to create and destroy sometimes simultaneously and how understanding this can help psychoanalysts work more effectively with these individuals Using the personal statements of influential artists and entertainers in addition to clinical material the authors examine the omnipotence of self destruction as it contends with that of creative artists The authors argue that creative artists use omnipotent fantasies to imagine the world differently this enables them to produce their art but also leaves these artists vulnerable to addiction Chapters devoted to Stephen King and Anne Sexton demonstrate the ways these authors used drugs and alcohol to fuel imagination and inspire creative output while simultaneously doing harm to themselves A detailed case study also demonstrates successful clinical work with a creative substance user Sex Drugs and Creativity will appeal to anyone interested in the links between creativity and substance use and will be of great use to psychoanalysts and mental health practitioners working with these challenging clients

Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors Ted Hughes Elaine Feinstein, 2016-08-11 Ted Hughes is one of the greatest English poets of this century yet his life was dogged by tragedy and controversy His marriage to the American poet Sylvia Plath marked his whole life and he never entirely recovered from her suicide in 1963 though he chose to remain silent on the subject for more than 30 years Many people including his friend Al Alvarez have held Hughes s adultery responsible for Plath s death Elaine Feinstein first met Hughes in 1969 and she was a good friend of his and his sister Olwyn s both of whom guarded the Plath estate She knows many of the European and America poets who so influenced Hughes Seamus Heaney Thom Gunn Miroslav Holub and knows the world in which both he and Plath moved Creativity, Madness and Civilisation Richard Pine, 2021-04-16 What is creativity And what is madness How far can we interpret an artist s work through our knowledge of his or her mental state and how far can we infer a mental state from a work of art When does a work of art cease to be a personal statement by the artist and become a matter of public concern The contributions to this book attempt to answer some of these questions They come from a wide range of disciplines and experiences a practising psychiatrist a practising artist suffering from reactive depression and critics working in literature film music and the visual arts The essays include discussions of the myth of creativity the music of Robert Schumann the borders of sanity in the writing of Lawrence Durrell the insane truth of Virginia Woolf the meeting of doctor and patient in the poetry of Anne Sexton mood disorders in the fiction of David Foster Wallace love and madness in the poetry of Hafiz of Shiraz and the paintings of Adolf W lfl Central to this discussion of creativity madness and civilisation is the difficulty of establishing an appropriate and effective vocabulary and mindset between critics and clinical psychiatrists which would enable them to work together in understanding mental disturbance in creative artists Profession 2011 Rosemary G. Feal, 2014-01-08 This issue of Profession contains Sidonie Smith s introduction to her Presidential Forum held at the 2011 MLA convention and the essays of forum participants Hillary Chute Marianne Hirsch Leigh Gilmore Craig Howes Fran oise Lionnet Nancy K Miller David Palumbo Liu Brian Rotman Leo Spitzer Robert Warrior and Gillian L Whitlock The issue also features a section on evaluating digital scholarship Introduced by Susan Schreibman Laura Mandell and Stephen Olsen the section includes essays by Steve Anderson Kathleen Fitzpatrick Jerome McGann Tara McPherson Bethany Nowviskie and Geoffrey Rockwell The issue s other essays are by Reed Way Dasenbrock Gillian Gane Laurie Grobman Joyce Kinkead David Porter and Richard Yarborough The issue concludes with two sets of MLA guidelines on professional employment practices for non tenure track faculty members and on evaluating translations as scholarship and a listing of reports surveys statements and other resources recently added to the MLA Web site Revising Life Susan R. Van Dyne, 2000-11-09 Provides a compelling argument for Plath s revision of the painful parts of her life the failed marriage her anxiety for success and her ambivalence towards her mother The reader will feel the tension in the poetry and the life CHOICE Examines Plath s twin goals of becoming a famous poet and a perfect mother This book s main points are clearly and forcefully argued that both poems and babies require struggle pain endless labor and fears of monstrous offspring and that in the end Plath ran out of the resources necessary to produce both Often maligned as a self indulgent confessional poet Plath is here retrieved as a passionate theorist Library Journal Susan Van Dyne s reading of twenty five of Sylvia Plath s Ariel poems considers three contexts Plath s journal entries from 1957 to 1959 especially as they reveal her conflicts over what it meant to be a middle class wife and mother and an aspiring writer in 1950s America the interpretive strategies of feminist theory and Plath s multiple revisions of the poems
