American Vision Volume 2 Teachers Edition:

Biblical Preaching and Teaching Volume 2 D Min Dallas R Burdette, 2010-02 One objective of this book is to set forth the heart of God's Gospel. This volume is composed of a compilation of sermons and in depth studies designed to strengthen and encourage Christians in their daily walk with God and with one another. Since the Cross of Christ is pivotal to a proper understanding of Christianity, numerous chapters in this book explore the ins and outs of the importance of the Cross in the lives of God's people. Not only does this book focus upon the scheme of God's redemption and evangelism as a part of every believer's ministry, it also calls attention to Christian apologetics, that is, a defense of Christianity. Three chapters are devoted to this kind of study: 1. Christianity versus Skepticism, 2. Credibility and Candor of the New Testament Writers, and 3. Paul's Conversion: Apologetic for Christianity. Also, this book allocates three chapters to the subject of baptism and its meaning to God's children. And finally, four chapters are dedicated to a detailed study of worship within the Christian community. Dallas Burdette has been a serious student, teacher, and preacher of the Bible for fifty-eight years, supporting himself for many years as an agent for AFLAC. He has written numerous articles for religious journals as well as many essays and sermons, which are available on his website: www.freedominchrist.net. He has developed a keen interest in promoting unity among God's people through a more accurate reading of the Word. He has degrees from Amridge University, formerly Southern Christian University, where he also was Director of Extended Learning for five years. He holds the Doctor of Ministry degree, 1999, from Erskine Theological Seminary.

Rethinking Our Classrooms, Volume 2, 2001

Teaching for Dissent Sarah Marie Stitzlein, 2015-11-17 Teaching for Dissent looks at the implications of new forms of dissent for educational practice. The reappearance of dissent in political meetings and street protests opens new possibilities for improved democratic life and citizen participation. This book argues that this possibility will not be fulfilled if schools do not cultivate the skills necessary for our citizens to engage in political dissent. The authors look at how practices in schools, such as the testing regime and the hidden curriculum, suppress students' ability to voice ideas that stand in opposition to the status quo. Teaching for Dissent calls for a realignment of the curriculum and the practices of schooling with a guiding vision of democratic participation

Unto a Good Land David Edwin Harrell, Edwin

S. Gaustad, John B. Boles, Sally Foreman Griffith, 2005-08-23 Introducing a New U S History Text That Takes Religion Seriously Unto a Good Land offers a distinctive narrative history of the American people from the first contacts between Europeans and North America's native inhabitants through the creation of a modern nation to the 2004 presidential election Written by a team of highly regarded historians this textbook shows how grasping the uniqueness of the American experiment depends on understanding not only social cultural political and economic factors but also the role that religion has played in shaping U S history While most United States history textbooks in recent decades have expanded their coverage of social and cultural history they still tend to shortchange the role of religious ideas practices and movements in the American past Unto a Good Land restores the balance by giving religion its appropriate place in the story This readable and teachable text also features a full complement of maps historical illustrations and In Their Own Words sidebars with excerpts from primary source documents
