Giving Form to an Asian and Latinx America Long Le-Khac, 2020-03-03 Crossing distinct literatures histories and politics Giving Form to an Asian and Latinx America reveals the intertwined story of contemporary Asian Americans and Latinxs through a shared literary aesthetic Their transfictional literature creates expansive imagined worlds in which distinct stories coexist offering artistic shape to their linked political and economic struggles Long Le Khac explores the work of writers such as Sandra Cisneros Karen Tei Yamashita Junot Diaz and Aimee Phan He shows how their fictions capture the uneven economic opportunities of the post civil rights era the Cold War as it exploded across Asia and Latin America and the Asian and Latin American labor flows powering global capitalism today Read together Asian American and Latinx literatures convey astonishing diversity and untapped possibilities for coalition within the United States fastest growing immigrant and minority communities to understand the changing shape of these communities we must see how they have formed in relation to each other As the U S population approaches a minority majority threshold we urgently need methods that can look across the divisions and unequal positions of the racial system Giving Form to an Asian and Latinx America leads the way with a vision for the future built on panethnic and cross racial solidarity

Chicana/o and Latina/o Fiction Ylce Irizarry, 2016-02-15 In this new study Ylce Irizarry moves beyond literature that prioritizes assimilation to examine how contemporary fiction depicts being Cuban Dominican Mexican or Puerto Rican within Chicana o and Latina o America Irizarry establishes four dominant categories of narrative loss reclamation fracture and new memory that address immigration gender and sexuality cultural nationalisms and neocolonialism As she shows narrative concerns have moved away from the weathered notions of arrival and assimilation Contemporary Chicana o and Latina o literatures instead tell stories that have little if anything to do with integration into the Anglo American world The result is the creation of new memory This reformulation of cultural membership unmask the neocolonial story and charts the conscious engagement of cultural memory It outlines the ways contemporary Chicana o and Latina o communities create belonging and memory of their ethnic origins An engaging contribution to an important literary tradition Chicana o and Latina o Fiction privileges the stories Chicanas os and Latinas os remember about themselves rather than the stories of those subjugating them NACCS Book Award National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies 2018 MLA Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies Modern Language Association 2017

Youth, Identity, Power Carlos Muñoz, 2020-05-05 Youth Identity Power is the classic study of the origins of the 1960s Chicano civil rights movement Written by a leader of the Chicano student movement who also played a key role in the creation of the wider Chicano Movement this is the first full length work to appear on the subject It fills an important gap in the history of political and social protest in the United States Carlos Muoz places the Chicano Movement in the context of the political and intellectual development of people of Mexican descent in the USA tracing the emergence of student activists and intellectuals in the 1930s and their initial challenge to the dominant white racial and class ideologies He then documents the rise and fall of the Chicano Movement of the 1960s situating it within the 1960s civil rights and radical movements and assessing the Chicano Movement s contribution to the development of the Mexican American population and the Latino population as a whole In an afterword to this new edition Muoz charts the burgeoning growth of US Latino communities assesses the nativist backlash against them and argues that Latinos must play a central role in a new movement for multiracial democracy
