Robert Bork, William W. Clark, Abby McGehee, 2016-12-05 This collection of essays presents the exciting and innovative work being done in the field of medieval architectural history by scholars affiliated with AVISTA one of the most active sponsors of such research in the Anglo American scholarly community These studies constitute a snapshot of the range of new interpretive strategies being deployed by researchers in the reassessment of previous scholarship and identification of new modes of inquiry In recent years the study of medieval architecture has been transformed by the emergence of new critical perspectives and new technologies The contributors to this book are among those at the forefront of these developments Several of the essays present dramatic reinterpretations of canonical monuments including the Abbey of Saint Denis Beauvais Cathedral and Notre Dame in Paris Others consider broader methodological issues such as the applications of geometry workshop practice and the shaping of historical narratives Still others demonstrate how high tech scanning and visualization methods can enhance our understanding of construction methods and the behavior of buildings The publication of this collection of pioneering essays should foster further exploration by clarifying the state of research by establishing specific historical arguments and by providing models of inquiry to inspire emerging scholars

Religious Representation in Place M. George, D. Pezzoli-Olgati, 2014-10-16 Religious Representation in Place brings together an interdisciplinary group of scholars from the Humanities and Sciences to broaden the understanding of how religious symbols and spatial studies interact The essays consider the relevance of religion in the experience of space a fundamental dimension of culture and human life

Art in England Sara N. James, 2016-10-31 Art in England fills a void in the scholarship of both English and medieval art by offering the first single volume overview of artistic movements in Medieval and Early Renaissance England Grounded in history and using the chronology of the reign of monarchs as a structure it is contextual and comprehensive revealing unobserved threads of continuity patterns of intention and unique qualities that run through English art of the medieval millennium By placing the English movement in a European context this book brings to light many ingenious innovations that focused studies tend not to recognize and offers a fresh look at the movement as a whole The media studied include architecture and related sculpture both ecclesiastical and secular tomb monuments murals panel paintings altarpieces and portraits manuscript illuminations textiles and art by English artists and by foreign artists commissioned by English patrons

Medieval Gardens Elisabeth B. MacDougall, 1986 Reading

Gothic Architecture Matthew M. Reeve, 2008 The question of how architecture was read by those viewing it has in recent years come to the forefront of research encompassing a range of interpretive strategies Here contributors look at Gothic architecture aiming to widen the field of study as well as examine the ways in which the architecture was read

Stories of Art James Elkins, 2024-07-31 A thoughtful engaging and intimate history of art that offers a critical analysis of the assumptions on which the entire discipline of art history depends Concise and original this accessible second edition continues to act as an antidote to the behemoth art history textbooks of the past Cultures have their own stories about themselves about other cultures and to hear them all is one way to hear the multiple stories that art tells James Elkins persuasively demonstrates there can never be one story of art now that art historians are concerned with gender diversity inclusiveness and decolonization Stories of Art is an interactive iconoclastic text encouraging readers to imagine how they would present art history in an age of multiple narratives Elkins discusses decolonizing the discipline representing race and ethnicity Eurocentrism post nationalism and indigenous voices while examining histories of art written in China Persia Turkey and India This new edition features QR codes to 27 short videos that introduce challenging ideas about art and history in a clear and open way encouraging active reading and including ideas for writing exercises and class conversations A must read for students and scholars interested in exploring the cultural function of art history

Illuminating the Word in the Early Middle Ages Lawrence Nees, 2023-10-05 This richly illustrated study shows how modern systems of textual presentation grew from techniques developed in the medieval period
