Rodricks,Kelsey Jacobson,2020-01-01 This book explores the affective and relational lives of young people in diverse urban spaces By following the trajectories of diverse young people as they creatively work through multiple and unfolding global crises it asks how arts based methodologies might answer the question How do we stand in relation to others those nearby and those at great distances The research draws on knowledges research traditions and artistic practices that span the Global North and Global South including Athens Greece Coventry England Lucknow India Tainan Taiwan and Toronto Canada and curates a way of thinking about global research that departs from the comparative model and moves towards a new analytic model of thinking multiple research sites alongside one another as an approach to sustaining dialogue between local contexts and wider global concerns The Qualified Self Lee Humphreys, 2018-04-13

How sharing the mundane details of daily life did not start with Facebook Twitter and YouTube but with pocket diaries photo albums and baby books Social critiques argue that social media have made us narcissistic that Facebook Twitter Instagram and YouTube are all vehicles for me promotion In The Qualified Self Lee Humphreys offers a different view She shows that sharing the mundane details of our lives what we ate for lunch where we went on vacation who dropped in for a visit didn't begin with mobile devices and social media People have used media to catalog and share their lives for several centuries Pocket diaries photo albums and baby books are the predigital precursors of today's digital and mobile platforms for posting text and images The ability to take selfies has not turned us into needy narcissists it's part of a longer story about how people account for everyday life Humphreys refers to diaries in which eighteenth century daily life is documented with the brevity and precision of a tweet and cites a nineteenth century travel diary in which a young woman complains that her breakfast didn't agree with her Diaries Humphreys explains were often written to be shared with family and friends Pocket diaries were as mobile as smartphones allowing the diarist to record life in real time Humphreys calls this chronicling in both digital and nondigital forms media accounting The sense of self that emerges from media accounting is not the purely statistics driven quantified self but the more well rounded qualified self We come to understand ourselves in a new way through the representations of ourselves that we create to be consumed Form, Function, and Style in Instructional Design:

and theory from a range of disciplines on ageism discussing issues from elder abuse to age discrimination against workers revised and updated People commonly use age to categorize and stereotype others even though those who stereotype the elderly are eventually bound to become elderly themselves Ageism is found cross culturally but it is especially prevalent in the United States where most people regard growing older with depression fear and anxiety Older people in the United States are stigmatized and marginalized with often devastating consequences This volume collects the latest theory and research on prejudice against older people offering perspectives from psychology nursing medicine social work and other fields The second edition has been completely updated with new or extensively revised contributions The contributors all experts in their fields consider issues that range from elder abuse to age discrimination against workers There has been a relative dearth of research on ageism perhaps because age prejudice is still considered socially acceptable This book is still the only one that examines ageism in such detail from such diverse scholarly perspectives The contributors discuss the origins and effects of ageism and offer suggestions for how to reduce ageism as the wave of baby boomers heads for old age Contributors Yoav S Bergman Ehud Bodner Jennifer Barbour Piers Bayl Smith Daphne Blunt Bugental Maria Clara P de Paula Couto Susan T Fiske Jeff Greenberg Barbara Griffin Jessica A Hehman Peter Helm Sarah H Kagan Molly Maxfield Lynn McDonald Mary Chase Mize Joann M Montepare Todd D Nelson Michael S North Amanda Rumsey Jeff Schimel Laura Shannonhouse Dirk Wentura Susan Krauss Whitbourne

Savoie, 2019-09-02 Canada s representative democracy is confronting important challenges At the top of the list is the growing inability of the national government to perform its most important roles namely mapping out collective actions that resonate in all regions as well as enforcing these measures Others include Parliament s failure to carry out important responsibilities an activist judiciary incessant calls for greater transparency the media s rapidly changing role and a federal government bureaucracy that has lost both its way and its standing Arguing that Canadians must reconsider the origins of their country in order to understand why change is difficult and why they continue to embrace regional identities Democracy in Canada explains how Canada's national institutions were shaped by British historical experiences and why there was little effort to bring Canadian realities into the mix As a result the scope and size of government and Canadian federalism have taken on new forms largely outside the Constitution Parliament and now even Cabinet have been pushed aside so that policy makers can design and manage the modern state This also accounts for the average citizen's belief that national institutions cater to economic elites to these institutions own members and to interest groups at citizens own expense A masterwork analysis Democracy in Canada investigates the forces shaping the workings of Canadian federalism and the country's national political and bureaucratic institutions
