Ordained Local Ministry in the Church of England Andrew Bowden, Leslie J. Francis, Elizabeth Jordan, Oliver Simon, 2012-06-14 Ordained Anglican ministry is changing rapidly Soon the majority of clergy are likely to be volunteers and especially in rural areas female All mainstream Churches recognise that new contexts need new forms of ministry Ordained Local Ministers OLMs are priests specifically called out by their local congregation and ordained to minister in that locality Half the dioceses in England and elsewhere in the Anglican Communion including Australasia Scotland and North America have established formal schemes to enable this type of ministry Some dioceses believe the process has helped to revitalise parishes and raise the spiritual temperature of congregations Others have called a halt believing their schemes have somehow gone wrong or have not delivered The time has come for a calm assessment of available evidence about an experiment into which the Church has poured considerable time effort and money over the last twenty years Does it have ongoing value or is it just one more bright idea that has flourished for a season and has now had its day

Listening for God's Call Susan H. Jones, 2014-11-24 The Learning Church series offers a range of short and accessible introductions on some of the key themes in Christian theology and discipleship This book discusses the basic Christian belief that God has a purpose and plan for the World and that God calls us to work with God to bring that purpose and plan to fruition In contemporary Christian thinking God s call is to discipleship and ministry This book is designed to help readers grasp the theology of call and of vocation and to discern God s call to them
