Philology and Criticism Vishwa Adluri, Joydeep Bagchee, 2018-06-29 Philology and Criticism contrasts the Mahabharata's preservation and transmission within the Indian scribal and commentarial traditions with Sanskrit philology after 1900 as German Indologists proposed a critical edition of the Mahabharata to validate their racial and nationalist views Vishwa Adluri and Joydeep Bagchee show how in contrast to the Indologists' unscientific theories V S Sukthankar assimilated the principles of neo-Lachmannian textual criticism to defend the transmitted text and its traditional reception as a work of law philosophy and salvation The authors demonstrate why after the edition's completion no justification exists for claiming that an earlier heroic epic existed that the Brahmins redacted the heroic epic to produce the Mahabharata or that they interpolated sectarian gods such as Vishnu and Shiva into the work By demonstrating how the Indologists committed technical errors cited flawed and biased scholarship and used circular argumentation to validate their racist and anti-Semitic theories Philology and Criticism frees readers to approach the Mahabharata as the principal monument of bhakti Madeleine Biardeau The authoritative guide to the critical edition's correct use and interpretation Philology and Criticism urges South Asianists to view Hinduism as a complex debate about ontology and ethics rather than through the lenses of Brahmanism and sectarianism It launches a new world philology one that is plural and self-reflexive rather than Eurocentric and ahistorical

Epigraphy and Islamic Culture Mohammad Yusuf Siddiq, 2015-11-19 Architectural inscriptions are a fascinating aspect of Islamic cultural heritage because of their rich and diverse historical contents and artistic merits These inscriptions help us understand the advent of Islam and its gradual diffusion in Bengal which eventually resulted in a Muslim majority region making the Bengali Muslims the second largest linguistic group in the Islamic world This book is an interpretive study of the Arabic and Persian epigraphic texts of Bengal in the wider context of a rich epigraphic tradition in the Islamic world While focusing on previously untapped sources it takes a fresh look into the Islamic inscriptions of Bengal and examines the inner dynamics of the social intellectual and religious transformations of this eastern region of South Asia It explores many new inscriptions including Persian epigraphs that appeared immediately after the Muslim conquest of Bengal indicating an early introduction of Persian language in the region through a cultural interaction with Khurasan and Central Asia In addition to deciphering and editing the epigraphic texts the information derived from them has been analyzed to construct the political administrative social religious and cultural scenario of the period The first survey of the Muslim inscriptions in India ever to be attempted on this scale the book reveals the significance of epigraphy as a source for Islamic history and culture As such it will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian Studies Asian History and Islamic Studies
