WEDDING will give brides the exact amount of information they need to plan the wedding they want. It breaks down pre wedding tasks into manageable bits of information and serves as a point by point checklist so that nothing slips through the cracks and nothing is left undone. Unlike other books, COUNTDOWN is arranged on a 52 week timeline; one year is the average amount of time brides take to plan a wedding that explains what needs to be done when. Each week will feature an essential aspect of a beautiful wedding and will include tips and insider information on how brides can get what they want, budgeting considerations, definition of terms as well as feature information for Brides On A Budget and When Money Is No Object. For brides who wish they could hire a wedding planner but can't afford one, this book will hold their hand through the process so they can plan the wedding of their dreams.

How to Open and Operate a Financially Successful Wedding Consultant and Planning Business John N. Peragine, John N. Peragine, Jr., 2008 Book CD ROM. The Association of Bridal Consultants estimates that billions are spent on weddings every year. A good wedding consultant is of invaluable assistance to potential brides with no experience of the best and easiest way of going about things. Advice can be given on all aspects of a wedding including the gown, accessories even down to childcare. This manual will get you started on the right footing.

book is the first to systematically introduce China's tourism education system and the various tourism education practices in China to the international audience and stakeholders. China has the world's largest tourism education system which consists of over 1 000 higher learning institutions with tourism related programs and over half a million of tertiary level students studying in these programs. Despite the industry scale internationally little is known about this tourism education system and how it operates. Knowledge and better understanding of China's tourism education system are important as tourism becomes one of the critical forces transforming economy, society and environment. The book offers an historical evaluation of China tourism education development and elaborates on the current industry status and practices in different subject fields of China's tourism education including tourism management, hospitality management, events and festival management in higher education, tourism vocational education, tour guides training and certification, master of tourism administration, MTA education as a unique education model in China, PhD education in tourism, tourism curriculum research and international collaboration in tourism education in China. The book provides relevant knowledge to international tourism education providers, industry practitioners, human resource managers, government officials and tourism academics, researchers and students.
