

At the heart of the world's most powerful nations is a small, unassuming town. A town where the people are not just citizens, but warriors. A town where the people are not just warriors, but leaders. A town where the people are not just leaders, but heroes. A town where the people are not just heroes, but legends. A town where the people are not just legends, but gods. A town where the people are not just gods, but the world.
