Language Matters in Contemporary Zimbabwe Collen Sabao, Esther Mavengano, 2024-06-17 Speaking to a broader global preoccupation with the state of languages and language development this book considers issues surrounding the diverse languages linguistic communities and cultures of Zimbabwe Reflecting on Shona Xitsonga Sotho Xhosa Tjwao Nambya IsiNdebele Nyanja Tshivenda English and Braille the book uncovers both the internal and external factors that impact language structures language use and language ideologies across the country The book considers how colonial legacies and contemporary language domination and minoritisation have led to language endangerment It considers the fate of communities whose languages are marginalised and in the process poses questions on what can and should be done to preserve Zimbabwean languages. The authors' offerings range across subjects as diverse as music, linguistic innovation, education, human rights, literature, language politics and language policy in order to build a rich and nuanced picture of language matters in the country. Coming at a critical moment of increasing mobility, migration, cultural plurality and globalisation, this book will be an important resource for researchers across African literature, linguistics, communication policy and politics.

Writing and Rewriting National Theatre Histories S.E. Wilmer, 2009-11. Historians of theatre face the same temptations and challenges as other historians: they negotiate assumptions, their own and those of others about national identity and national character; they decide what events and actors to highlight or omit and what framework and perspective to use for telling the story. Personal biases, trends in scholarship and sociopolitical contexts influence all histories and theatre histories too are often revised to reflect changing times and interests. This significant collection examines the problems and challenges of formulating national theatre histories. The essayists included here, leading theatre scholars from all over the world, many of whom wrote essays specifically for this volume, provide an international context for national theatre histories as well as studies of individual nations. They cover a wide geographical area: Asia, the Middle East, Africa, Europe and North America. The essays contrast large countries (India, Indonesia) with small (Ireland, newly independent Slovenia) with established (U.S.A., developed Canada) with developing (Mexico, South Africa), capitalist (U.S.A.) with formerly communist (Russia), monolingual (Sweden) with multilingual (Belgium, Canada) and countries with stable historical boundaries (Sweden) with those whose borders have shifted (Germany). The essays also explore such sociopolitical issues as the polarization of language groups, the importance of religion, the invisibility of ethnic minorities, the redrawing of geographical borders, changes in ideology and the dismantling of colonial legacies. Finally, they examine such common problems of history writing as types of evidence, periodization, canonization, styles of narrative and definitions of key terms. Writing and Rewriting National Theatre Histories will be of special interest to students and scholars of theatre, cultural studies and historiography.

Study English Gene Swanepoel, 2000-12. Multilingualism and Intercultural Communication H. Ekkehard Wolff, Pamela Maseko, Russell H. Kaschula, Christine Anthonissen, Bassey E. Antia, 2017-05-01. An in-depth look at the changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced South African society. To date, there has been no published textbook which takes into account changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced South African society. Multilingualism and Intercultural Communication breaks new ground in this arena. The scope of this book ranges from macro sociolinguistic questions pertaining to language policies and their implementation or non-implementation to micro sociolinguistic observations of actual language use in verbal interaction, mainly in multilingual contexts of Higher Education (HE). There is a gradual move for the study of language and culture to be taught in the context of professional disciplines in which they would be used, for example, Journalism and African languages, Education and African languages etc. The book caters for this growing market. Because of its multilingual nature, it caters to English and Afrikaans language speakers as well as the Sotho and Nguni language groups _ the largest languages in South Africa and also increasingly used in the context of South African Higher Education It brings together various inter linked disciplines such as Sociolinguistics and Applied Language Studies Media Studies and Journalism History and Education Social and Natural Sciences Law Human Language Technology Music Intercultural Communication and Literary Studies The unique cross cutting disciplinary features of the book will make it a must have for twenty first century South African students and scholars and those interested in applied language issues Southern African Books in Print ,1994
