Zero At The Bone:

Zero at the bone Jane Seville,2020 Can Poetry Save the Earth? John Felstiner,2009-04-01 In forty brief and lucid chapters Felstiner presents those voices that have most strongly spoken to and for the natural world Poets from the Romantics through Whitman and Dickinson to Elizabeth Bishop and Gary Snyder have helped us envision such details as ocean winds eroding and rebuilding dunes in the same breath wild deer freezing in our presence and a person carving initials on a still living stranded whale Zero at the Bone Michael Cadnum,2015-09-29 His sister's disappearance threatens to tear a boy's family apart Cray is the first to smell smoke It's his 1st week on the job working alongside his father at the family plant and he's afraid of making a fool of himself So he waits on the factory floor the machines screaming and wood chips flying But he's finally certain The roof is on fire and if the blaze isn't put out the factory could explode Cray calls the fire department and races through the building telling the workers to flee He's amazed by how calm they are The fire is extinguished and life slowly returns to normal But the true crisis is just around the corner When Cray's sister disappears and the police search reveals no trace of her he discovers fear affects everyone differently and it's not always smart to stay calm
