An Accented Cinema Hamid Naficy, 2018-06-05 In An Accented Cinema Hamid Naficy offers an engaging overview of an important trend the filmmaking of postcolonial Third World and other displaced individuals living in the West How their personal experiences of exile or diaspora translate into cinema is a key focus of Naficy's work Although the experience of expatriation varies greatly from one person to the next the films themselves exhibit stylistic similarities from their open and closed form aesthetics to their nostalgic and memory driven multilingual narratives and from their emphasis on political agency to their concern with identity and transgression of identity The author explores such features while considering the specific histories of individuals and groups that engender

divergent experiences institutions and modes of cultural production and consumption Treating creativity as a social practice he demonstrates that the films are in dialogue not only with the home and host societies but also with audiences many of whom are also situated astride cultures and whose desires and fears the filmmakers wish to express Comparing these films to Hollywood films Naficy calls them accented Their accent results from the displacement of the filmmakers their alternative production modes and their style Accented cinema is an emerging genre one that requires new sets of viewing skills on the part of audiences Its significance continues to grow in terms of output stylistic variety cultural diversity and social impact This book offers the first comprehensive and global coverage of this genre while presenting a framework in which to understand its intricacies

Cinema of Anxiety Vincent F. Rocchio,2010-07-22 The new realism of Italian cinema after World War II represented and in many ways attempted to contain the turmoil of a society struggling to rid itself of Fascism while fighting off the threat of radical egalitarianism at the same time In this boldly revisionist book Vincent F Rocchio combines Lacanian psychoanalysis with narratology and Marxist critical theory to examine the previously neglected relationship between Neorealist films and the historical spectators they address Rocchio builds his analysis around case studies of the films Rome Open City Bicycle Thieves La Terra Trema Bitter Rice and Senso Through the lens of psychoanalysis he challenges the traditional understanding of Neorealism as a progressive cinema and instead reveals the anxieties it encodes a society in political turmoil an economic system in collapse and a national cinema in ruins while war occupation collaboration and retaliation remain a part of everyday life These case studies demonstrate how Lacanian psychoanalysis can play a key role in analyzing the structure of cinematic discourse and its strategies of containment As one of the first books outside of feminist film theory to bring the ideas of Lacan to theories of cinema this book offers innovative methods that reinvigorate film analysis Clear and detailed insights into both Italian culture and the films under investigation will make this engaging reading for anyone interested in film and cultural studies

News Parade Joseph Clark, 2020-05-19 A fascinating look at the United States conflicted relationship with news and the media through the lens of the newsreel When weekly newsreels launched in the early twentieth century they offered the U S public the first weekly record of events that symbolized indisputable evidence of the news In News Parade Joseph Clark examines the history of the newsreel and how it changed the way Americans saw the world He combines an examination of the newsreel s methods of production distribution and reception with an analysis of its representational strategies to understand the newsreel s place in the history of twentieth century American culture and film history Clark focuses on the sound newsreel of the 1930s and 1940s arguing that it represents a crucial moment in the development of a spectacular society where media representations of reality became more fully integrated into commodity culture Using several case studies including the newsreel s coverage of Charles Lindbergh s transatlantic flight and the Sino Japanese War News Parade shows how news film transformed the relationship between its audience and current events as well as the social and political consequences of these changes It pays particular attention to how discourses of race and gender worked together with the rhetoric of speed mobility and authority to establish the power and privilege of newsreel spectatorship In the age of fake news and the profound changes to journalism brought on by the internet News Parade demonstrates how new technologies and media reshaped the American public s relationship with the news in the 1930s a history that can help us to better understand the transformations happening today Basics
