Street Kim Addonizio, 2007-07-03 Rita Jackson is a young woman on the skids spending her time in shelters and on the dot com drunk streets of late 1990s San Francisco She's a young woman haunted by the murder of her mother when she was thirteen and a young bride haunted by the disappearance of her husband Jimmy who split after a nasty argument more than a year earlier Together Jimmy and Rita were slipping into drugs and hard times Rita is filled with feelings of guilt and failure and the hope that she will one day find Jimmy She doesn't know that he is still in the city still in love with her waiting tables in an expensive restaurant while trying to get a foothold in the straight life When Rita witnesses the aftermath of a murder her own life is endangered She becomes involved with Gary Shepard a married criminal investigator drawn to the dark side of this young woman What unfolds is a story of three flawed people struggling with themselves as much as with their circumstances as each of them is pulled more deeply and dangerously into the consequences of their decisions When a drunken night leads Jimmy to jeopardize his second and last chance it seems unlikely that these sweet damaged people will ever come to anything let alone find a miracle of miracles save one another But fate in Addonizio's hands works in strange and beautiful geometries And redemption she tells us is never impossible Poetry Amorak Huey, W. The Language of Loss Barbara Abercrombie, 2020-11-03 When Barbara Abercrombie's husband died she found the language of condolence irritating no matter how well intended My husband had not gone to a better place as if he were off on a holiday He had not passed like clouds overhead nor was he my late husband as if he'd missed a train I had not lost him as if I'd been careless and for sure none of it was for the best She yearned instead for words that acknowledged the reality of death spoke about the sorrow and loneliness and perhaps even guilt and anger and might even point the way toward hope and healing She found those words in the writings gathered here The Language of Loss is a book to dip into and read slowly a collection of poems and prose to lead you through the phases of grief The selections follow an arc that mirrors the path of many mourners from abject loss and feeling unmoored to glimmers of promise and possibility through to gratitude for the love they knew These writings which express what often feels ineffable will accompany those who grieve offering understanding and solace
