What They Teach You at Harvard Business School Philip Delves Broughton, 2008 When Philip Delves Broughton abandoned his career as a successful journalist and joined Harvard Business School's prestigious MBA course he joined 900 other would-be tycoons in a cauldron of capitalism Two years and 500 case studies later he had met the world's most influential entrepreneurs and analysed the biggest business conundrums But he and his fellow students faced a bigger question still how would they juggle their lives their jobs and their bank balances Philip Delves Broughton's witty and informative memoir is a revelatory account of what the financial elite learn within the hallowed walls of the exclusive Harvard Business School Publisher details

What They Teach You at Harvard Business School Philip Delves Broughton, 2009-05-07 For anyone thinking of doing an MBA or indeed anyone who wants to understand how the corporate elite are moulded this is a must read Luke Johnson British entrepreneur The internationally best selling business classic that reveals what it's really like to study an MBA at one of the most prestigious institutions in the world Philip Delves Broughton quit his position as New York correspondent for The Daily Telegraph to take his place on one of the most coveted and exclusive courses in the world an MBA at Harvard Business School to acquire the wisdom reserved for the world's global elite And what he learns is truly jaw dropping From his first class to graduation encompassing the guest lectures the Apprentice style tasks the booze luge the burnouts and the high flyers Delves Broughton divulges the advice wisdom and folly he found whilst studying at the most prestigious business school in the world Anyone considering enrolling will find this an insightful portrait of Harvard Business School life Economist Very funny An excellent book Wall Street Journal Ahead of the Curve Philip Delves Broughton, 2008-07-31 Two years in the cauldron of capitalism horrifying and very funny The Wall Street Journal In this candid and entertaining insider's look at the most influential school in global business Philip Delves Broughton draws on his crack reporting skills to describe his madcap years at Harvard Business School Ahead of the Curve recounts the most edifying and surprising lessons learned in the quest for an MBA from the ingenious chicanery of leveraging and the unlikely pleasures of accounting to the antics of the booze luge and other less savory trappings of student culture Published during the one hundredth anniversary of Harvard Business School this is the unflinching truth about life in the trenches of an iconic American institution Ahead of the Curve Philip Delves Broughton, 2008

The Human Edge Greg Orme, 2019-11-15 The world is spinning so fast it's difficult to keep up Two hundred and fifty years ago the Industrial Revolution replaced our arms and legs at work The fourth Industrial Revolution is now replacing our brains This technological shift is engulfing organisations and people It's challenging the very essence of what it means to be human Daily news headlines pose existential questions that used to belong in the pages of science fiction Will a machine take my job Are we becoming cyborgs What happens when super computers become self aware If we can't compete with artificial intelligence

what's left Innovation guru Greg Orme provides a helpful funny and supportive shove in the right direction He explores the skills you need to survive and thrive in a world of artificial intelligence He urges you to stop competing and instead do things machines can't To become a more human human This is a practical toolkit to master three intrinsically human super powers

- 1 To ignite your innate CURIOSITY in a world of accelerating change
- 2 To rediscover your CREATIVITY to produce an avalanche of game changing ideas
- 3 To develop CONNECTIVITY to kindle the passion persistence and insights to successfully engage fellow humans to turn human creativity into business innovation

These career enhancing capabilities have been identified in Orme's work with business managers and organisations across the globe They draw upon the latest psychological and neuroscience research the unique philosophies of successful entrepreneurs the practises of the world's most innovative companies as well as the habits of great artists designers and scientists The full text downloaded to your computer With eBooks you can search for key concepts words and phrases make highlights and notes as you study share your notes with friends eBooks are downloaded to your computer and accessible either offline through the Bookshelf available as a free download available online and also via the iPad and Android apps Upon purchase you'll gain instant access to this eBook Time limit The eBooks products do not have an expiry date You will continue to access your digital ebook products whilst you have your Bookshelf installed

The Golden Passport Duff McDonald, 2017-04-25 A riveting and timely intellectual history of one of our most important capitalist institutions Harvard Business School from the bestselling author of The Firm With The Firm financial journalist Duff McDonald pulled back the curtain on consulting giant McKinsey Company In The Golden Passport he reveals the inner workings of a singular nexus of power ambition and influence Harvard Business School Harvard University occupies a unique place in the public's imagination but HBS has arguably eclipsed its parent in terms of its influence on modern society A Harvard degree guarantees respect An HBS degree is as the New York Times proclaimed in 1978 the golden passport to life in the upper class Those holding Harvard MBAs are near guaranteed entrance into Western capitalism's most powerful realm the corner office Most people have a vague knowledge of the power of the HBS network but few understand the dynamics that have made HBS an indestructible and powerful force for almost a century As McDonald explores these dynamics he also reveals how despite HBS's enormous success it has failed with respect to the stated goal of its founders the multiplication of men who will handle their current business problems in socially constructive ways While HBS graduates tend to be very good at whatever they do that is rarely the doing of good In addition to teasing out the essence of this exclusive if not necessarily secret club McDonald explores two important questions Has the school failed at reaching the goals it set for itself And is HBS therefore complicit in the moral failings of Western capitalism At a time of pronounced economic disparity and political unrest this hard hitting yet fair portrait offers a much needed look at an institution that has a profound influence on the shape of our society and all our lives
