Reconceiving Midwifery Cecilia Benoit,Ivy Lynn Bourgeault,Robbie Davis-Floyd,2004 Midwifery in the developed world is in a state of ferment and change a phenomenon referred to as the new midwifery Reconceiving Midwifery offers state of the art analyses of the new midwifery as it is practiced The authors social scientists and midwifery practitioners reflect on regional differences in the emerging profession providing a systematic account of its historical local and international roots its evolving regulatory status and the degree to which it has been integrated into health care systems They also examine the nature of midwifery training accessibility and effectiveness across diverse ethnic and socio economic groups highlighting the key issues facing the profession before during and in the immediate post integration era in each province

Gender, Welfare State and the Market Thomas Boje,Arnlaug Leira,2012-10-02 This volume represents the present state of theoretical debate in welfare state scholarship drawing on research from western Europe North America and Japan It therefore provides a valuable balance of breadth and detail from the broad international overview to comparisons between specific welfare states and national case studies

Valuing Care Work Cecilia Benoit,Helga Hallgrimsdottir,2011-02-12 There are many forms of paid and unpaid labour encompassed in health care systems including home care for the elderly or disabled community health services and the care family members provide for loved ones Valuing Care Work is an international comparative study that examines economic organizations as well as intimate settings to show how personal service work is shaped by broader welfare state developments To trace the relationships between gender labour and equity in health care the essays in this volume analyse the rules and practices that shape care work The contributors highlight how national configurations of the welfare state shape the gendering of paid and unpaid intimate labour in a range of settings and discuss how the policies and practices associated with neoliberalism have focussed on efficiency and accountability to the detriment of other policy agendas including those that might further increase dignity and equity for both recipients and providers of paid and unpaid health care

Home Sweat Home Elizabeth Patton,Mimi Choi,2014-01-23 Coeditors Elizabeth Patton and Mimi Choi argue that an in depth examination of media images of housework from the mid nineteenth century to the early twenty first century is long overdue Modern depictions often imply that certain concerns can be resolved through excessive domesticity reflecting some of the complicated and unfinished issues of second wave feminism Home Sweat Home Perspectives on Housework and Modern Relationships reveals how widespread the cultural image of perfect housewives and the invisibility of household labor were in the past and remain today In this collection of essays contributors explore the construction of women as homemakers and the erasure of household labor from the middle class home in popular representations of housework They concentrate on such matters as the impact of second wave feminism on families and gender relations of popular culture especially in film television magazines and advertising on our views of what constitutes home life and gender relations and of changing views of sexuality and masculinity within the domestic sphere Home Sweat Home will interest students and scholars of gender cultural media and communication studies sociology and American history and appeal to anyone curious about housework gender relations and popular culture
