English for Competitive Examinations: (Includes Descriptive and Objective Tests) Wren & Martin, 2021 This book has been designed by combining the goodness of the original Wren Martin text High School Grammar Composition and specialized content developed by a panel of competitive examination experts in the area of the English language. The USP is therefore adapting a classical text to the needs of the various admission and recruitment competitive examination aspirants. Its exhaustive coverage ensures that virtually no competitive examination remains untouched. Students preparing for descriptive tests such as UPSC Compulsory English and General English Papers of Main Exams and state PCS examinations, Judicial Services examination, Indian Forest Service examination, Statistical Services and many other examinations in which subjective papers tests are mandatory will find this book immensely useful. The book is also a boon for those students who are preparing for objective tests such as Banking and Insurance, SSC, UPSC preliminary, Defence Services, Law entrance, Business School entrance examinations and many other admission and recruitment examinations. A unique feature of this book is demonstration of the connectedness of the concepts and their applications visually with the help of arrows and pointers. The aspirant will also find questions from recent examinations on virtually every page of the book. An index of examination wise questions has been included so that the aspirant can choose the sections according to the targeted examination and focus more. Topic wise distribution of questions in English examination papers both descriptive and objective will also help aspirants to undertake a very well directed test prep program using the book. The Politics of English Language Education and Social Inequality Maya Kalyanpur, Padmini Bhuyan Boruah, Sarina Chugani Molina, Sunaina Shenoy, 2022-12-30 Based on policy analysis and empirical data, this book examines the problematic consequences of colonial legacies of language policies and English language education in the multilingual contexts of the Global South. Using a postcolonial lens, the volume explores the raciolinguistics of language hierarchies that results in students from low income backgrounds losing their mother tongues without acquiring academic fluency in English. Using findings from five major research projects, the book analyzes the specific context of India where ambiguous language policies have led to uneasy tensions between the colonial language of English, national and state languages, and students' linguistic diversity is mistaken for cognitive deficits when English is the medium of instruction in schools. The authors situate their own professional and personal experiences in their efforts at dismantling postcolonial structures through reflective practice as teacher educators and present solutions of decolonial resistance to linguistic hierarchies that include critical pedagogical alternatives to bilingual education and opportunities for increased teacher agency Ultimately this timely volume will appeal to researchers scholars academics and students in the fields of international and comparative education English and literacy studies and language arts more broadly Those interested in English language learning in low income countries specifically will also find this book to be of benefit to their research
