Levin, Ph.D.,Jean Kilbourne, Ed.D.,2008-08-05 Thong panties padded bras and risqu Halloween costumes for young girls T shirts that boast Chick Magnet for toddler boys Sexy content on almost every television channel as well as in books movies video games and even cartoons Hot young female pop stars wearing provocative clothing and dancing suggestively while singing songs with sexual and sometimes violent lyrics These products are marketed aggressively to our children these stars are held up for our young daughters to emulate and for our sons to see as objects of desire Popular culture and technology inundate our children with an onslaught of mixed messages at earlier ages than ever before Corporations capitalize on this disturbing trend and without the emotional sophistication to understand what they are doing and seeing kids are getting into increasing trouble emotionally and socially some may even to engage in precocious sexual behavior Parents are left shaking their heads wondering How did this happen What can we do So Sexy So Soon is an invaluable and practical guide for parents who are fed up confused and even scared by what their kids or their kids friends do and say Diane E Levin Ph D and Jean Kilbourne Ed D internationally recognized experts in early childhood development and the impact of the media on children and teens understand that saying no to commercial culture TV movies toys Internet access and video games isn't a realistic or viable option for most families Instead they offer parents essential age appropriate strategies to counter the assault For instance Help your children expand their imaginations by suggesting new ways for them to play with toys for example instead of playing house with dolls they might send their toys on a backyard archeological adventure Counteract the narrow gender stereotypes in today's media ask your son to help you cook get your daughter outside to play ball Share your values and concerns with other adults relatives parents of your children's friends and agree on how you'll deal with TV and other media when your children are at one another's houses Filled with savvy suggestions helpful sample dialogues and poignant true stories from families dealing with these issues So Sexy So Soon provides parents with the information skills and confidence they need to discuss sensitive topics openly and effectively so their kids can just be kids

Social Processes in Children's Learning Paul Light, Karen Littleton, 1999 This book first published in 2000 is about children's learning and problem solving behaviour It reflects the increasingly close integration seen in recent years between social and cognitive approaches to researching the learning process In particular Paul Light and Karen Littleton examine the ways in which interactions between children influence learning outcomes They begin by placing this topic in a broad theoretical and empirical context and go on to present a substantial series of their own experimental studies which focus on children of late primary and early secondary school age These investigations address peer facilitation of problem solving social comparison effects on learning and social context effects upon the interpretation of tasks Many of the studies involve computer based learning but the findings have implications both for classroom practice and the understanding of the learning process This book will be a valuable tool for researchers teachers and practitioners interested in the social processes of children's learning
