 List Of Rehabilitation Centers Visited Employed Homemakers Job Satisfaction Arti Samarth, 2018-10-30 This book is based on MRP report to publish The research is to evaluate the relationship between job satisfaction and social and work conditions of employed homemakers balancing dual responsibilities where there still are significant indicators of the existence of a male dominated culture of misconceptions for women world During the last decades a developing country modified several technical and economic progress aspects to jobs and families Though difference could be because of multiple factors like gender discrimination in several levels e g income career prospects and access to education Now it is common to find families where both are working and the traditional roles within the household is slightly changed i e acceptance or recognition waved Among the emerging needs it is the labour flexibility which derives from the fact that the gap between the amounts of time spent on market and nonmarket work for men versus women has narrowed e g in 2018 homemakers spent more time on market work and significantly less time on nonmarket work housekeeping Keeping in mind that to create a better world the action needed at all levels i e individual society and organizations At individual level with values and aspiration while society with responsible approach and humane or effective organization with leadership and management advance the social and economic justice sustainability solutions to national prosperity issues The author as a senior icon in the field continues to make meaningful and significant contributions that could only be realized through years of experience and reflection so there is hoping of warm welcome Familie, Bindungen und Fürsorge Hans Bertram, Nancy
