know and at the same time to reconsider the milieu in which he has been both a symbol and a participant More than a memoir Face the Music offers a window into the era of debutantes and white tie balls when such events made national headlines Duchin explores what glamour and society once meant and what they mean now With sincerity and humor Face the Music offers a moving portrait of an extraordinary life its disruptions and revitalization From the Minds of Jazz Musicians David Schroeder,2017-11-22 From the Minds of Jazz Musicians Conversations with the Creative and Inspired celebrates contemporary jazz artists who have toiled struggled and succeeded in finding their creative space The volume was developed through transcribing and editing selected interviews with 35 jazz artists conducted by the author between 2009 and 2012 in New York City with a historical essay on each artist to provide context The interviews feature musicians from a broad range of musical styles and experiences ranging from Gerald Wilson born in 1918 to Chris Potter born in 1971 Topics range from biographical life histories to artists descriptions of mentor relationships revealing the important life lessons they learned along the way With the goal to discover the person behind the persona the author elicits conversations that speak volumes on the creative process mining the individualistic perspectives of seminal artists who witnessed history in the making The interviews present the artists candid and direct opinions on music and how they have succeeded in pursuing their unique and creative lives At the Jazz Band Ball Nat Hentoff,2010-06-01 Nat Hentoff renowned jazz critic civil liberties activist and fearless contrarian I m a Jewish atheist civil libertarian pro lifer has lived through much of jazz s history and has known many of jazz s most important figures often as friend and confidant Hentoff has been a tireless advocate for the neglected parts of jazz history including forgotten sidemen and women This volume includes his best recent work short essays long interviews and personal recollections From Duke Ellington and Louis Armstrong to Ornette Coleman and Quincy Jones Hentoff brings the jazz greats to life and traces their art to gospel blues and many other forms of American music At the Jazz Band Ball also includes Hentoff s keen cosmopolitan observations on a wide range of issues The book shows how jazz and education are a vital partnership how free expression is the essence of liberty and how social justice issues like health care and strong civil rights and liberties keep all the arts and all members of society strong Clifford's War: Without End J. Denison Reed ,2022-08-20 In this action packed twisty and fast paced continuation of the PI Clifford Dee thriller series private investigator Clifford Dee is back with his team this time in Northern Virginia working with his former Army Rangers commander Doyle Hamilton in Washington D C After a U S Senator was murdered Doyle was chosen to run in a special election to fill his office To qualify he must step down from his army command and decides to hand the division over to a former military rival of Clifford s Kevin Burr who shuts Clifford out from work out of spite While his teammate Bailey takes on a minor copyright case involving a budding rap star they uncover connections between a government department that Burr used to run and another famous rap artist Dark Fenix who was about to tour overseas as a cover to smuggle weapons into Africa for Burr Things worsen when he also finds a connection between Burr and a ring of assassins for hire Clifford discloses this information to Doyle which makes things worse and Clifford's team is targeted. He must now work with Special Agent Sims of the FBI to continue investigating the weapons deal, find who is running the assassins, and dig up evidence to incriminate Burr. All without getting killed. Clifford's team gets Dark Fenix's Africa tour canceled and Burr is in the hot seat because he cannot deliver the weapons to the African warlords as promised. Stretched too thin, Burr finds himself in a deadly bind. Clifford and Sims take on the assassins, resulting in one of them ending up in the hospital and an office fire being set to cover up evidence. More assassins are sent to finish the job, which turns into an all-out brawl, but they manage to escape. The assassins' leader gets the drop on the team and plans to force Clifford to watch his team die one by one. This time, there doesn't seem to be any escape. Fans of action thrillers and crime suspense like the TV series Burn Notice are sure to enjoy this mile-a-minute story of government conspiracy, car chases, lethal encounters, and humorous situations. Stan Getz Nicholas Churchill, 2004-12-29. Some may only know the jazz legend Stan Getz, tenor saxophonist, for his bossa nova hits Desafinado and The Girl from Ipanema. However, Getz, born in 1927, began to play professionally at age 15, and his rich musical career lasted until shortly before his death on June 6, 1991. He played in a wide variety of musical settings, such as big band, orchestral quartet, and duo. The incredible beauty of his sound sparked the late jazz great John Coltrane to say, "We would all play like Stan Getz if we could." When Getz died, jazz trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie said, "He was sheer genius. And there's one thing about this man: he was the most melodic player on the jazz scene." This bibliography, the first of its kind, contains a total of 2,576 bibliographic citations, with 2,292 of them annotated. It includes references to periodical literature, articles from news wire services, books, dissertations, films, videos, television programs, radio broadcasts, and Web sites. The citations are primarily from English language sources, materials in English and French, as well as a handful of items from other languages, are annotated. This work includes a preface that contains the scope of the work, a user's guide, and a list of more than 340 periodicals cited. The main body of the work is divided into the following sections: album reviews, performance reviews, discographies, and discographical information, transcriptions, biographical and critical works, filmography, and appendix. Album reviews are provided for 240 albums, along with the discographical details for each of these albums. The appendix contains unannotated citations to materials in Danish, Dutch, German, Italian, Norwegian, Spanish, and Swedish. M F Horn William F. Lee, 1997. From the Minds of Jazz Musicians, Volume II David Schroeder, 2023-10-13. From the Minds of Jazz Musicians, Volume II: Conversations with the Creative and Inspired is a follow-up to Volume I's celebration of contemporary jazz artists who have toiled, struggled, and succeeded in finding their creative space. Volume II was developed through transcribing and editing selected interviews with 29 jazz artists conducted by the author since 2011, along with a historical essay on each artist. The interviews feature musicians from a broad range of musical styles and experiences, with their beginnings ranging from the 1950s to the early 1980s. Topics range from biographical life histories to descriptions of mentor relationships, revealing the important life lessons they learned along the way. With the goal to discover the person behind the persona the author elicits conversations that speak of the creative process mining the individualistic perspectives of seminal artists who witnessed history in the making By comparing and contrasting each artist s perspective to discover similarities in their career paths these volumes are an important research tool for students and academics offering direct information from leading figures in the jazz world
