Wilhelm-Solomon,2022-07-01 Shortlisted for the 2023 Sunday Times Literary Awards One of the best works of narrative non fiction to emerge from the country in years Quite simply brilliant NIREN TOLSI Amid evictions raids killings the drug trade and fire inner city Johannesburg residents seek safety and a home A grandmother struggles to keep her granddaughter as she is torn away from her A mother seeks healing in the wake of her son s murder And displaced by the city s drive for urban regeneration a group of blind migrants try to carve out an existence The Blinded City recounts the history of inner city Johannesburg from 2010 to 2019 primarily from the perspectives of the unlawful occupiers of spaces known as hijacked buildings bad buildings or dark buildings Tens of thousands of residents both South African and foreign national live in these buildings in dire conditions This book tells the story of these sites and the court cases around them which strike at the centre of who has the right to occupy the city In February 2010 while Johannesburg prepared for the FIFA World Cup the South Gauteng High Court ordered the eviction of the unlawful occupiers of an abandoned carpet factory on Saratoga Avenue and that the city s Metropolitan Municipality provide temporary emergency accommodation for the evicted The case which became known as Blue Moonlight and went to the Constitutional Court catalysed a decade of struggles over housing and eviction in Johannesburg The Blinded City chronicles this case among others and the aftermath a tumultuous period in the city characterised by recurrent dispossessions police and immigration operations outbursts of xenophobic violence and political and legal change All through the decade there is the backdrop of successive mayors and their attempts to clean up the city and the struggles of residents and urban housing activists for homes and a better life The interwoven narratives present a compelling mosaic of life in post apartheid Johannesburg one of the globe s most infamous and vital cities New Scholarship on Ghanaian Literatures, Languages and Cultures Dannabang Kuwabong,Jemima Asabea Anderson,Helen Yitah,Nicholas G. Faraclas,2024-03-18 This volume showcases new research on popular academic topics in Ghana Its wide range of focus across disciplines includes topics such as pidgin performing apologies and politeness music the argument for adopting geographical indications GI policies for Ghana s unique agricultural products and the poetics of names among many others It will appeal particularly to students pursuing degrees in Africana and Ghanaian studies Journal of the Royal Colonial Institute Royal Colonial Institute (Great Britain),1893 Women's Rights and Religious Law Fareda Banda,Lisa Fishbayn Joffe,2016-02-12 The three Abrahamic faiths have dominated religious conversations for millennia but the relations between state and religion are in a constant state of flux This relationship may be configured in a number of ways Religious norms may be enforced by the state as part of a regime of personal law or conversely religious norms may be formally relegated to the private sphere but can be brought into the legal realm through the private acts of individuals Enhanced recognition of religious tribunals or religious doctrines by civil courts may create a hybrid of these two models One of the major issues in the reconciliation of changing civic ideals with religious tenets is gender equality and this is an ongoing challenge in both domestic and international affairs Examining this conflict within the context of a range of issues including marriage and divorce violence against women and children and women's political participation this collection brings together a discussion of the Abrahamic religions to examine the role of religion in the struggle for women's equality around the world The book encompasses both theory and practical examples of how law can be used to negotiate between claims for gender equality and the right to religion It engages with international and regional human rights norms and also national considerations within countries This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in law and religion gender studies and human rights law
